We Never Stop Being Christians

This past Saturday, Charlie and I went up to the Ouachita Mountains in Arkansas to go to the Little Missouri Falls. Our goal was to take some pictures for the photography club that we are in, and we accomplish that goal. After we were done looking at the falls, a man with a big number on his shirt approached Charlie and said that he was running a marathon and lost the trail. Nick was only twenty years old, alone, tired, and thirsty. So we gave him some water, a granola bar, and set off to find the start of the race. There was only sporadic cell service in that whole region, and so we had to drive around a lot to different places, but he was eventually able to use our phone to get in touch with his family. We ended up in Langley, Arkansas at a small gas station around 5:00 PM where we met the race director, and Nick was reunited with his wife and family.

After we dropped Nick off, Charlie commented to me, “Dad, helping people is hard work,” and it is true. You never know what you are going to get into when you start helping someone else. It involves real sacrifice because you are giving yourself over to them fully and putting your interests behind their needs. Paul wrote: “Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others” (Phil.2:3-4). Being a Christian is not something that we do on Sundays only, take up as a part-time hobby during the week, or only practice at home with our family. Being a Christian is something that takes place every moment of our lives as we render service to God in whatever situation we are in at that moment. God has blessed us greatly! May we be a blessing to others as we serve the Lord Jesus.

This is our opportunity to introduce our new minister, Kevin Cauley, to the community. Times of worship will be: Friday evening at 7 PM; Saturday evening will start with singing at 7 PM and preaching at 8 PM. And our Sunday services will be begin with class at 9:30 AM and worship services at 10:25 AM and evening services at 6 PM. Make your plans to join us for our monthly Fellowship Luncheon after morning services on the 22nd. Bring your favorite dishes and enjoy the food and fellowship. Also you can pick up some flyers about the meeting in the foyer to hand out to the community. Let us all do all that we can do to make this a successful meeting.

The Light of the World

At a church program a little boy was to recite a Scripture he had memorized.

When he got in front of the crowd, the sight of hundreds of eyes peering at him caused him to forget his verse. Every line that he had so carefully rehearsed faded, and he stood there unable to utter a single word.

In the front row, his mother was almost as frantic as the little boy. The mother gestured, moved her lips, trying to form the words for the boy, but it did no good. Finally, the mother, in desperation, whispered the opening phrase of the memorized Scripture: "I am the light of the world".

Immediately the child's face lit up and a smile appeared on it as he said with supreme confidence: "My mother is the light of the world!"

Of course, everybody smiled and some laughed out loud. Then they soberly reflected that the boy, in some ways, was not far from wrong. For the mother is the light of the child's world.

Copied

"Beloved in the sight of my mother". Proverbs 4:3
