Our Work for Marriage

We have a big weekend coming up October 2-4! Our fall event is a marriage seminar. You may be thinking, "Why would I need to attend a marriage seminar?" Maybe you have a great marriage. Maybe you are single. Maybe you are no longer married. Maybe you think you don't NEED to attend a marriage seminar. Let's think about a few reasons why you should attend.

First, you should want to attend our marriage seminar because the Bible will be taught. The topic of marriage is part of the whole counsel of God, and we need to know all of God's counsel. God's word is always relevant even if we don't see the application at the moment. We need to hide God's word in our hearts so that we may not sin (Psalm 119:11).

Second, we need to know what the Bible says about marriage. Our culture is in great distress over the institution of marriage. None of us wants to see Satan prevail. Marriage is a fight in which we all participate, and we can promote godly marriage. We need to be armed with the "sword of the Spirit" on this topic (Ephesians 6:17).

Third, the principles of the Bible that apply to marriage help all relationships. This seminar is really about loving your neighbor as you love yourself (Matt. 22:39), and everyone needs to know how to do that.

Finally, attendance encourages our work! This is an opportunity to draw near to our brothers and sisters in Christ, learn more about their life, and encourage all to faithfulness (Heb. 10:24-25). You could be the person who saves someone's marriage. We want your encouraging voice present! So, make your plans to be with us for our marriage seminar! God bless you, and I love you.

God In The Storm

"The voice of the LORD is upon the waters; the God of glory thunders, the LORD is over many waters. The voice of the LORD is powerful, the voice of the LORD is majestic. The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars; yes, the LORD breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon. He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and Sirion like a young wild ox. The voice of the LORD hews out flames of fire. The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; the LORD shakes the Wilderness of Kadesh" (Psalm 29:3-8).

For those who have an eye to see it, the wonder of God can be seen all around us; in the darkened sky, the sea, the towering mountains, and even the placid meadows. In this case, the psalmist sees God's unmatched power in the thunder, lightning, and rain that were racing across the landscape.

The description of the violent weather is the heart of the psalm; it is one of the most sublime pictures of a thunderstorm found anywhere in the Scriptures. In verses 3 and 4, the storm is approaching. In verses 5 through 7, the storm descends in its fury. In verses 8 and 9, it trails away in the distance, leaving with us its profound impressions about God.

The writer sees the beginning of the tumult: "The voice of the Lord is upon the waters; the God of glory thunders, the Lord is over many waters." The storm begins over (what must have been) the western Mediterranean Sea with claps of thunder. From a distance, one can see the building of the clouds. Although the sea is strong and destructive, the psalmist knows that God is stronger than the sea. The peals of the thunder are "upon" the sea or "over" it, illustrating to David the sovereignty of God. He is "over" all things, even the world of nature. In the storm, the writer sees the greatness of God. He notices that God is stronger than the crash of the thunderbolt, the fire of the lightning, and the shaking power of the wind.

Key Thought: Our Lord is bigger than the mountains, the seas, and the heavens. He commands the floods, the trees, and the raging rivers. The Creator is above all that He has created.

Our Marriage Seminar "Hope for Marriage in Christ Alone" is less than a month away. It will feature Dr. Mike Price, beginning October 2nd through the 4th. It will give each of us an opportunity to get involved and participate in this activity. We will be needing food preparation and volunteers to assist in serving & cleaning up. Let us all take an active part.
