Happenings in God's Family

Vol.44 No.6 February 15, 2015

Are You Ashamed?

The Bible teaches that there are some things that we should be ashamed of and there are other things that we should not be ashamed of. Ezra was ashamed of the sin that Israel had committed against God. He said: "O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens" (Ezra 9:6). David was ashamed of the transgressor. He wrote: "Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause" (Psalm 25:3). Isaiah was ashamed of idolatry. He wrote, "They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods" (Isaiah 42:17). We should be ashamed of some things.

However, there are other things of which we should not be ashamed. The Psalmist wrote: "Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments." (Psalm 119:6). Paul said: "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek" (Romans 1:16). He wrote to Timothy: "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Timothy 2:15).

The world tries to deny the shame that God has placed within sin. It tries to live with sin and without shame. Such a distortion of God's creation brings shame upon the sinner whether he realizes it or not. However, God does not want us to live in such shame. He gives us His word so that we can live without shame. When we love and obey God, accepting the forgiveness that He offers through Jesus, we have no reason to be ashamed.

Joseph

Children need to know that when things look as if they are out of control, God is still in control. Joseph is the perfect story to teach that truth. Twenty-three youngsters and twelve adults had fun learning about Joseph's coat of many colors, his fanciful dreams and how God used everything that happened to Joseph for good. The afternoon activities consisted of a lively singing session with Micah Thomas, the Bible story told by Sylvia Williams, craft time with Renee' Wright, reinforcement time with Paulette Taylor, outside activities with Madison & McKenzie Thomas and refreshments with Virginia Parrish, Janie Martin & Wilma Alexander. The children who came are Chance, Marquavian, Aneyia, Jordan, Mersadies, Lamyhia, Marquyen, Madison, Izyonna, Gavin, Brooke, Amiracle, Akiya, Sawyer, Daziah, Marquasia, Marli, Eddie, Colton, Jamarcus, James, Ania, and Damarcis. Jayden & Daniella were teen helpers who provided extra hands to help. Other adults contributing to the success & documentation of the learning that was going on are Jimmie Thomas, Sandra Conley, Janiece Richardson, Ernest Shelton, Charlene Yates and Kevin Cauley. It is hard to believe that there are only 3 more sessions of Learning to Serve planned before our summer break. We will try to make the most of the God-given opportunity to teach as many children as we can the truth of God's word. If you child is not a regular attendee, it is not too late to take advantage of an extra time to teach.
