Obedience

“Though He was a Son, yet He learned obedience by the things which He suffered. And having been perfected, He became the author of eternal salvation to all who obey Him” (Hebrews 5 :5-9).

Obedience is not a popular concept today. The preferred method go getting cooperation today is reasoning with people. Sometimes, however, reasoning simply doesn't get the job done. It assumes that the person with whom you are speaking understands your reasons and agrees with you about the conclusion This doesn't always happen and there are times when it is better for one to simply obey. The Bible speaks about reasoning with people (Isaiah 1:18), but it also speaks about obedience. Children are supposed to obey their parents in the Lord (Ephesians 6:1). Servants are to obey their masters (Colossians 3:22). We are to obey those who have the rule over us (Hebrews 13:17). We are to obey God (Acts 5:29). We are to obey the truth (Galatians 3:1, 5-7). We are to obey the gospel (2 Thessalonians 1:8, 1 Peter 4:17).

Even Jesus learned to obey the Father. This does not mean that He was disobedient; it simply meant that obedience needed to be practiced and understood experientially. In turn, Jesus became our great example of obedience so that we may obey Him to receive great peace and joy knowing that we have followed the Lord's will in our lives. God's commandments are not designed to bring grief, but peace, and when we obey the Lord's commandments, we demonstrate our love for Him (1 John 5:1-2). Why do we so often not want to obey? It is due to our own pride. Remove the pride and obedience becomes easy, loving and joyful.

God bless you and I love you. Kevin Cauley

Jesus Loves the Children

January 2016

Thirty-nine warm-hearted people met at the church building Sunday afternoon for the monthly session of Learning to Serve. Twenty-four of those were children from four years through fourth grade. They learned about Peter's confession that Jesus was the Son of God in the Bible lesson, reinforced it with an art project and application worksheets. Learning good sportsmanship and taking turns was the hidden agenda behind throwing beanbags and soft balls during the activity time. Besides refueling active bodies, the refreshment time is an opportunity to teach thankfulness and good manners. Juanita Shelton, Virginia Parrish and Janie Martin provided home-baked cookies as a special treat.

Those who attended are Daijah, Alyssa, Landrie, Christian, Anthony, Brooklyn, Sabrina, Aneyia, Chance, Tatum, Jordan, Dazyiah, Mersadies, A'Miracle, Kenneth, Jayden, Gavin, Akiya, Chyna, Ania, Akya, Ivyonnia, Precious and Sawyer.

Our teen helpers were Latorie Brown and Sommer Hobson. Adults who participated are Wilma Alexander, Janie Martin, Ernest Shelton, Charlene Yates, Suzette Tyndell, Janiece Richardson, Jimmie Thomas, Renee Wright, Paulette Taylor, Virginia Parrish, Laura Bateman, Sylvia Williams and Devonte Ballard.

All of you who support this activity in any way play a part in planting God's word in receptive hearts. Review time is a real eye opener when we see how many hard questions these children can answer. They are learning Bible facts and so much more.

Sylvia Williams

Thank You

Dear Christian Family, I want to thank all of you for all the help and encouragement you have been to me during this past few months of cancer treatment. Your cards, calls, prayers and help with transportation have been a tremendous benefit to me and my family.

Thank you so much and I love you all.
Jean Jones

"Once a man was asked, 'what did you gain by regularly praying to God?' The man replied, 'nothing...but let me tell you what I lost: Anger, ego, greed, depression, insecurity, and fear of death.' Sometimes the answer to our prayers is not gaining but losing; which ultimately is the gain."
