Spiritual Prison

A preacher friend in Virginia got in touch with me a couple of weeks ago about a prisoner to whom he has been corresponding. This particular prisoner is housed in the Telford Unit near New Boston. We rejoice that this prisoner has been studying God's word and that he desires to be baptized. Scott Overstreet was able to visit with him for a few minutes last week and talk to him about his spiritual needs. I am so thankful for brother Scott and the good work he does in the prison ministry. Please lift him and his work up in prayer this week.

I also learned that there was a web site through which you can communicate with prisoners: jpay.com. For the price of a stamp, you can send a one-page document to any prisoner in the State of Texas Correction System. The cost is minimal and you will make a difference in someone's life.

There are more types of prisons than just the physical ones in which we incarcerate those who have been found guilty of crimes. There are prisons that are a lot worse than that. I am talking about the prisons that we create for ourselves spiritually, but Jesus gives us the truth so that we can be set free (John 8:32). Addiction is a deadly prison that will destroy us if we do not do something about it. We can be addicted to many different things: food, caffeine, nicotine, drugs, pornography, sex, power, money, envy, anger, and pride. Peter wrote, "for by whom a person is overcome by him also he is brought into bondage" (2 Peter 2:19). Are you in a spiritual prison?

God bless you and I love you.

LTS February Bulletin

Repentance

Since we had never tried it before, the big question Sunday was, "Can we do Learning to Serve without Miss Charlene?" And happily the answer was, "Yes!" Mike Raney and Sylvia Williams picked up a few; Renee Wright and Jim Scarbrough filled up the van and we had 21 children in attendance-not a record, but a good group.

The afternoon was spent exploring the idea of repentance as preached by John and Jesus and what that means to children who are trying to imitate Christ. Lacking a "real" song leader, the children suggested their favorites and with Renee's encouragement joined in the singing enthusiastically. Paulette Taylor reinforced the Bible lesson, Renee helped the children with a Valentine craft and Virginia Parrish and Janie Martin had their hands full trying to fill them up with cheese nachos and other snacks.

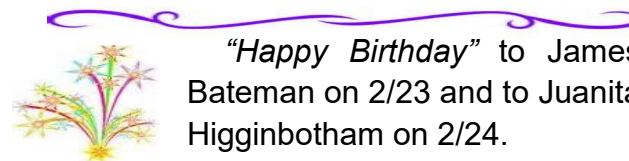

Sommer Hobson, our creative teen helper, and Devonte Ballard supervised the children in energy expending activities which they think are just plain fun.

The children are A'Daijah, Sabrina, Diego, Alyssa, Jordan, Kenny, Chance, Gavin, Elizabeth, A'Miracle, Mersadies, Aklya, Ivyonnia, Damarcis, Ania, Solai, Lawson, Krysta, Dontae, Jonny, and Marli.

Other adults who helped are Laura Bateman, Jimmie Thomas, and Ernest Shelton. Every volunteer is appreciated. Sandra Conley and Wilma Alexander are not always able to be here, but help by doing paper work and helping with visual aids. We thank Peggy Hooten for sharing a new flipchart that was used to teach the lesson.

If LTS program is going to continue we need to recruit a few adults who are committed to loving and teaching children. We have immediate job openings for a song leader, an activity leader and a kitchen helper. See Sylvia Williams for job descriptions and pay scale.

My past is the reason I presently know that I don't want a future without God.

"Happy Birthday" to James Bateman on 2/23 and to Juanita Higginbotham on 2/24.

And fail in the deed;
Than try to do nothing
And always succeed.*
