Pursuing Opportunities

Opportunity: noun, plural opportunities. 1. an appropriate or favorable time or occasion. 2. a situation or condition favorable for attainment of a goal. 3. a good position, chance, or prospect, as for advancement or success. (dictionary.com)

From looking at the dictionary definition of “opportunity,” we see some clear concepts. First, opportunity involves a time or occasion. Second, there is the idea of goal seeking. Third is the notion of advancement or success. We might put it this way: An opportunity is a time to seek success! We have just such a time before us this coming weekend with our gospel meeting. We need to take advantage of this time to seek success! How can we do that?

First, please pray for the success of our gospel meeting. God answers prayer and prayer encourages us to be faithfully involved in God’s work. Jesus taught “that men ought always to pray, and not to faint” (Luke 18:1). Second, think of someone you know who would benefit from coming to our gospel meeting and invite them to be here. We want as many to come to all of the services as we can get! There is no one that we cannot invite! Jesus said, “Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled” (Luke 14:23). Third, please make plans to attend. This is our effort and we need to support it! Fourth, let’s have a positive attitude about this event. We may experience a few hiccups, but with a positive attitude our challenges can be changed into cheer. “Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice” (Phil.4:4). Finally, don’t forget the big picture! We are doing this to love God and love one another (Matthew 22:37-40). That is our purpose in life. May God help us to fulfill that purpose in our efforts! I love you, and God bless you.

For Those Who Trust In God

"For the king trusts in the LORD, and through the loving-kindness of the Most High he will not be shaken"(Psalm 21:7).

The people turn to giving thanks for God's trustworthiness. His dependability is the foundation of their confidence. The day has gone well with the king, and the reason is obvious: "For the king trusts in the LORD." The king's part is that of believing in God. Because he has looked to God and followed Him, he has been the recipient of good things from His hand. He has experienced the glorious truth that God blesses those who trust Him. The loving-kindness of God has been and will be the mainstay of the king. "And through the loving-kindness of the Most High he will not be shaken." The king finds his strength in God's grace. God's part is steadfast loyalty to those who love Him. It is a foregone conclusion that God will always be generous to the righteous. He is continually a God of grace, and He never steps out of character. The king, therefore, is held steady by God's "loving-kindness." He is motivated to stay with God by the realization that God will never forsake Him.

Key Thought: The one who trusts in God, in the final analysis, does not lose. Poor Lazarus was carried by the angels to Abraham's bosom, beaten and persecuted Paul received in this life unparalleled honor and a glorious crown in eternity. If we commit our hearts to Him, He will commit His all-wise care to us. Copied
