God's Grace is Wonderful!

“Deeper than the ocean / and wider than the sea / is the grace of the Savior / for sinners like me. / Sent from the Father, / and it thrills my soul / Just to feel and to know / That His blood makes me whole.”

-Jewell M. Whitey Gleason

God's grace is truly a wonderful thing; I don't know that words can adequately express just how wonderful it really is. The world looks upon the concept of grace and sees favoritism, as if they themselves never have preferences.

Grace stands starkly in the face of equality because, by its very nature, a gift given to one is not given to another, and the idea of "gift" is at the heart of grace. Yet at the same time, God's gift is given freely to all who will accept it (John 3:16), and this makes His gift wholly equal, and the rejection of that gift the provenance of the one who would not receive it. Paul writes, "Therefore, as through one man's offense judgment came to all men, resulting in condemnation, even so through one Man's righteous act the free gift came to all men, resulting in justification of life" (Romans 5:18).

So God's grace is given to all freely, but we must accept it by trusting in the faithfulness of Christ Jesus. When I trust in Christ, I will give myself to Him and do what He desires, not because I think that I can earn anything by doing it, but because I have faith in His ability to save me. This is what makes salvation a gift and not a pay-check, because at the end of the day, I must confess with Paul and Jeremiah, "He who glories, let him glory in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 1:31, Jeremiah 9:24).
