Why There's Not a Beam in Your Eye, and Why There Is!

For years I have heard preachers talk about Jesus' statement in Matthew 7:3-4 about the speck and beam in different folks' eyes. Usually the beam is described as a long plank of wood (like a 2x4) sticking out of a person's eye socket, and the preacher remarks as to what a humorous picture Jesus is presenting here. For years, this is exactly how I have thought about it, and how I preached it, but I am not so sure that this is what Jesus had in mind anymore. Perhaps a different image is in order.

What Jesus is seeking to communicate with us in this passage is not to judge hypocritically, that is to condemn someone with a speck-sized spiritual problem while we have a plank-sized spiritual problem. We've got to get rid of our plank-sized spiritual problem first before we can see the speck-sized spiritual problems clearly (Matthew 7:5). Now, have you ever thought how those planked-sized spiritual problems were acquired in the first place?

We don't come into this world with plank-sized spiritual problems; we pick them up along the way, and it is always with our consent. We put the beam in our own eye by picking it up and carrying it with us. That beam is sin itself. The picture that we have traditionally preached needs to be changed. It isn't a picture of someone with a 2x4 sticking out of their eye. It's a picture of someone carrying a railroad tie in their arms. Have you ever tried to do that? You can't see a thing in front of you, and you certainly can't see a speck in someone else's eye. What's the solution? Put that thing down--get sin out of your life--and then you can help others. God bless you, and I love you.

Becoming Like God

“The earth is the LORD’S, and all it contains, the world, and those who dwell in it. For He has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers. Who may ascend into the hill of the LORD? And who may stand in His holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood and has not sworn deceitfully. He shall receive a blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation. This is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek Your face--even Jacob. Selah.” (Psalm 24:1-6) We are to approach God with reverence and purity of life--reverence because God is our Creator and Redeemer, and purity because of His holy nature. It has been said that one becomes like the God he worships. In light of this psalm, it can also be said that God requires us to become like Him if we desire to worship Him. He is God and not mortal. He is transcendently high above us, and yet He is gracious, approachable, and accessible. He is not on our level, but He invites us to walk with Him. He loves all people (2 Pet. 3:9) and entreats all people to come to Him, but He receives only those who come to Him and His terms. His worship is to be in harmony with His character. He is holy, and holiness is the characteristic of admission into His presence. The worship of Yahweh is the greatest single privilege that human beings ever know--and one of the supreme duties from which no human being is excused.

Key Thought: Proper worship requires that we come as cleansed people with the appropriate offerings, fulfilling with joy the adoration of the Great King.
