Graduates Need to Know . . .

Sometimes it is hard to believe that our young men and women will soon graduate from High School and into adult life. We ask: Are they ready? Will they be prepared? Can they succeed? What will their future be? Who will be in their life? Where will they go? What will they do? There are some things that our graduates should know. Here are a few.

First, God loves you. Sometimes it will feel like everyone in the world is against you. Know that God is rooting for you. He doesn't necessarily want you to have the big salary, fancy car, and showcase house, but He is on your side. He emptied the greatest treasures of heaven for you (Romans 8:32).

Second, you will be your own worst enemy. Know that you cannot be defeated unless you allow it. Fear comes from your own mind, and you are in control of your life. God hasn't given us a spirit of fear, but of love (2 Timothy 1:7).

Third, take responsibility for your actions whether good or bad. Taking personally responsibility is hard because it means embracing your failures, but God forgives and so will your family and friends that love you (2 Corinthians 12:9-10).

Fourth, love yourself like God loves you. Don't be selfish, but do recognize your own worth and value. Understand that you are worth taking care of yourself. Clean up after yourself. Practice proper hygiene. Respect and obey the law (Romans 13:1-10).

Fifth, don't let sin control you. Stay away from hurtful passions: greed, gluttony, lust, laziness. Recognize the root of these things: pride, envy, and anger. This is a battle you will constantly fight. Let God's Spirit lead you, not the desires of the flesh (Romans 8:1). God bless you, and I love you.

With Thanks for your Kindness

Words cannot express how grateful we are to our God for you and all the Sweet, generous expressions of love you have shown. Your kind words, visits, cards, and the scrumptious food, and especially your prayers. All of this has been such an encouragement to us, and it seems the surgery was a complete success. I now feel better than I have felt in a very long time. Now we are in a position to know for sure, God answers prayer! Our family is so blessed to know all of you. We love you so much. Thank you, Peggy, Billy & Donald Johnson.-----

My heart is so grieved as I try to express my gratitude for the support you have shown me during this most difficult period in our lives. Thank you so much for the beautiful funeral spray, memorial contributions, cards, calls, and prayers offered up on our behalf. Continue to pray for the long days ahead for us. Thank you. In Christian Love,

Charles & Gayle Floyd.

He Blew Out the Lamp

A man was travelling on foot through the desert. In a sandstorm he became disoriented and lost his way. Determined to succeed on his journey, he pitched his tent and went in to wait out the storm. He lit his lamp, shook the sand out of his clothes, and searched his supplies for food. He quickly found a box of dates. The first one was bad--full of worms; he threw it to the ground. The second was the same; he tossed this one to the ground with the other. He pulled out a third and then a fourth, but each date was bad. Finally, he picked up the dates he had tossed onto the ground, blew out the lamp and ate the dates! This is a vivid picture of one who knows what is sin; can readily recognize sin; fully understands the consequences of sin, and yet turns a blind eye to sin and runs headlong into the sinful act! Dear friends, when we are confronted with the temptation to sin, we must beware that we do not "blow out the lamp" simply so we do not see the disgusting and sickening act! Whether we choose to see it or not, when we choose to eat the fruit of worldliness, we are swallowing destruction.

"Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!" (Isaiah 5:20). Copied

Make money your god, and it will plague you like the devil.
