Who Is At Our Banquet?

Have you ever been to a banquet? The banquets that Jesus describes in His parables is not like that of the world. The upper status guests to these banquets refuse to come (Matthew 22:5-6, Luke 14:18-20). This was a serious cultural offense and merited the harsh response indicated by Jesus in these parables (Matthew 22:7, Luke 14:24). The master of the feast invites “the poor, the maimed, the lame , the blind” (Luke 14:13). The servants are instructed to “Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled”, (Luke 14:23) and “Go ye therefore in the highways and as many as ye shall find, bid” (Matthew 22:9). This banquet is a place where all are considered of equal value, Peter declared, “Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth him and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him” (Acts 10:34-35). James wrote, :My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons” and “But if you have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors” (James 2:1,9). In the banquet hall of heaven, “There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus” (Galatians 3:28). The banquet hall of heaven is a place of equality where everyone respects one another mutually, not for their status, class, or accomplishments, but simply for being people created in the image of God and redeemed by His Son. Do we have that respect for the people living around us today? Do we trust God to change our friends and family?

God bless you and I love you.

My Heart Gets There First

An elderly Christian lady, dreadfully crippled with rheumatism, used to hobble to the services of the church on two sticks. It was a great ordeal and required of her considerable toil and pain. A friend of hers observed her regularly and asked: "How do you manage to be at every service?" Her answer was classic: "My heart gets there first and my old legs just follow after",

There is the key to faithfulness, not only in attendance at the worship assemblies, but in living a life worthy of the name "Christin".

Jesus had taught men to seek first His Kingdom and His righteousness (Matthew 6:33). All acceptable service to God and His Son begins in the heart-a heart filled with love. A heart filled with the love of God and His Son will show itself in external actions. Jesus said, "If you love me, keep my commandments" (John 15:14).

If Jesus truly is Lord in our hearts, our lives will be lived so that others will see Christ living in us and the hope we have in our heart. (1 Peter 3:15-16).

We have heard the expression, "their heart is not in it". I'm afraid that the Lord, who knows the hearts of all men, must be saying that about many people who profess to follow Christ. Is your heart in the service to Christ? If so, you'll be like the lady above: your heart gets there first and your legs naturally will follow.

Bulletin Digest

We extend our sympathy and prayers to Steve and Linda McIntosh and family. Their daughter Kristen McIntosh Stuart passed away Saturday, February 27th. Steve was the minister here at the Church of Christ in New Boston for several years. Memorial services will be conducted Saturday, March 5th at 2 PM at the Westside Church of Christ, 524 Sowell Lane, Texarkana, TX. Visitation with the family will be held at 1 PM at the same location.

"Happy Birthday" to Sandra Conley and Meg Shelton on 3/11. "Happy Anniversary" to Mr. & Mrs. Justin Tyndell on 3/8.
