Summer Time Fun

We have some wonderful events scheduled for this summer! Our Summer Youth Series kicks off next Monday at Talco. I am looking forward to spending time with our youth and I hope that they are also excited about getting to see their friends from surrounding congregations.

Beginning Sunday, June 14th thru Wednesday, June 17th, from 6 PM to 7:30 PM, the Maud Church of Christ will hold their Vacation Bible School. This is a wonderful opportunity for our children to get to study God's word. Let's make an effort to support our sister congregation in their summer youth programs.

By the time this arrives in the mail, we will have begun our Wednesday night summer series for our adults. This has been much anticipated! Please remember to invite your friends and neighbors from New Boston. We have plenty of fliers!

After discussion with J.J. Hendrix, the director of our session at Camp Ida, he informs me that we still have plenty of room for more kids. So, if your child, grandchild or friend's child still wants to go to Camp Ida for leadership training, we can still make that happen. Ask for an application and we will get one to you.

My family and I also have some great summer plans to celebrate my parents 50th wedding anniversary. We will take some time off to go do that from June 15th--22nd. It promises to be a great summer for the New Boston Church of Christ.

God bless you and I love you.

Hear Him

"Hear Him" The God who said this made the worlds, rules among the armies of heaven, hurled angels down to hell for disobedience, and had His voice shake the earth. The God who holds the destinies of all the nations in his hand, who "weights the hills in a balance, and handles the isles as a very little thing," in connections dwith the revelation of His Son, to all the nations of the earth, with all the majesty of His authority, says, "Hear Him." Give Him audience, regard Him, bow to Him, follow Him, be guided by Him, honor and obey Him forever. "Hear Him." If a man receives the revelation God makes of His Son, or, rather, if he receives His Son from the revelation he has made of Him, and bows in submission to Him in accordance with the command to, "Hear Him," confesses with the mouth before men, what he believes in his heart, that "Jesus Christ is the Son of God," and submits to the divine test of loyalty in the requirement to be buried with his Lord in baptism, while that great formula is uttered over him, "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit," he gives the highest assurance in his power to give, that he is changed in heart. He shows that he loves God and will serve Him, and is bound by the strongest obligation that ever did or ever can bind a human being, to love and serve God. The authority that requires this submission is the highest and most binding that can rest upon a human being; and, if it does not govern, control, and restrain the person, no authority can. "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him." Matthew 17:5
