Don't Ignore the Lost

"You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep going astray and ignore them. You shall take them back to your brother. . . And you shall do the same with his donkey or with his garment, or with any lost thing of your brother's, which he loses and you find; you may not ignore it" (Deuteronomy 22:1-3).

We are familiar with the concept of the lost and found. When we lose a jacket, piece of jewelry, sunglasses, or some other article, it is often placed in a common spot where people may go look for their lost item. We don't ignore lost items because when we lose something, we want it returned to us. Does it surprise you that this concept goes all the way back to the Mosaic Law? If an Israelite saw someone's livestock roaming free, he was to take charge of it and return it. If it wasn't convenient to return it, he was supposed to store it until the owner came looking for it. What God specifically prohibited was ignoring the problem. They were obliged to do something about the lost.

There is a spiritual lesson in this. Today, God has many people that are lost. Jesus said that he came to seek and to save that which was lost (Luke 19:10). He did not ignore the problem of lost people. What do we do about it? Are we paying attention to the lost around us? Or are we ignoring the problem. God doesn't want us to ignore the lost. Let's resolve to do something about it and bring back to God that which is lost to Him.

God bless you, and I love you.

Every tomorrow is a vision of hope

It has arrived! Graduation! What an exciting time of your lives. You are on the verge of the next phrase of life...higher education, careers, and family. We honor you, wishing you well in everything that you do. Isaiah 40:30-31 "Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint."
