One More Week Until Our Gospel Meeting with Chris Hooten!

We want you and all your friends and family to come to our gospel meeting beginning next week Sunday the 22nd with Chris Hooten! This coming Saturday the 21st, we will be having our stew supper, and that will be an opportunity for you to get to meet Chris and know him a bit better. Then, Sunday morning at 9:30 AM, he will teach our Bible class hour on the topic: The Greatness of Need of Man. During our worship hour, he will speak on the subject: The Beauty of Forgiveness. After this, we will have a congregational potluck luncheon to which everyone is invited to stay. Sunday evening, he will preach about: The Price of Forgiveness. Monday night at 7:00 PM, he teaches on: What Must I Do To Be Saved. Tuesday evening, he will speak on the topic: Forgiveness for the Child of God, and finally, Wednesday evening, he will tell us about the topic: God Forgives Me So I Can Forgive Myself and Others. This will be a wonderful spiritual feast! I am looking forward to it, and I hope you are looking forward to it as well. Let's each one of us resolve today to be present for each lesson so that we can learn about forgiveness. It is such an important topic in the Bible. Our eternal salvation rests on it! Jesus said, "For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses" (Matthew 6:14-15). Please tell your friends and family about this opportunity to study God's word on this most needed topic!

God bless you, and I love you.
 Kevin Cauley

Prodigal Son

By Sylvia Williams

Scott Hobson did a very good job of engaging the children and imparting the facts and the meaning of the parable of the Prodigal Son. Whether we are like the wasteful son who left and returned or the son who stayed, but had a bad attitude, our father (God) is willing to forgive us.

Kevin Cauley led the children in singing their favorite songs. Mary Lynn Cauley and her helpers helped them construct a big fatherly hug using construction paper and googly eyes. Shara Hobson and her assistant reinforced the story and played appropriate word games. Sylvia Williams supervised as they watched an animated version of the parable and nibbled on candy corn to remind them of the son's lowest point before he came to himself. Even the refreshment session went off without a hitch. With Virginia Parrish incapacitated and Janie Martin out of town, there could have been a real crisis in the kitchen, but Wilma Alexander, Janiece Richardson, and Suzette Tyndell stepped up to prepare, serve, clean up and the children never knew their food had been endangered.

Zain, Drake, Carson, Landen, Samuel, Sabrina, Alyssa, Landrie, Charles, Jordan, Gavin, Elizabeth, Kenny, Chance, Mersadies, and Amiracle enjoyed the activities. Our young helpers were Logan, Sawyer, Sommer, LaTorie and Aaliyah. Other adults who helped were Stephanie Wages, Laura Bateman, Jimmie and Johnny Thomas, Ernest Shelton, and Russell Tyndell. Mike and Karen Raney deserve double recognition for doing the shopping and providing transportation. Thanks to Sandra Conley and Peggy Johnson for cutting out bubbles and handwork materials. Your support and encouragement is needed and appreciated. We are making plans to share some of the miracles of Jesus in November. We are planting seeds of faith that will grow and flourish as the children mature.
