Christianity and Self-Worth

The Bible presents a high view of the worth of each individual person. This view is two-fold. First, there is the fact of a person's being made in the image of God. Genesis 1:27 states, "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them." This teaching is reaffirmed in several places in the Bible such as in Genesis 9:6 and James 3:9. Second, that value is reaffirmed in the price that God paid for each person's life in the blood of Christ. Peter wrote, "knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot" (1 Peter 1:18-19). Paul wrote, "for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body" (1 Corinthians 6:20). Our worth is independent of any accomplishments that we may make in this life because it is not dependent upon us and our actions. Our value is not measurable in our productivity or goodness. Jesus made it clear that each person is worth more than the whole of the world when He said, "For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul?" (Matthew 16:26). This two-fold teaching of self-worth (being made in God's image, and being bought by the blood of Christ) shows that each person's worth is equivalent to God's worth, which is infinite. This means that each person's worth is infinite also since it is defined by God and His Son, Jesus.

God bless you, and I love you.

*To My Church Family,
Thank you so much for all involved in planning the graduation celebration. It was very nice and the ice cream was amazing. I am so blessed to have been raised in the Lord's Church, especially here in New Boston. The love and support that has been given to me over the last 18 years has been a huge part in who I am today. Thank you so much for all the gifts, best wishes, and the beautiful Bible. I will have to find a new church family for the next few years but I will be back to visit every chance I get.*

*Gigem and God Bless, Love,
Madison Thomas*

The Family of Trenton Davis would like to thank everyone for their generosity. Thank you for honoring our son at his start into the world.

*God Bless All,
James & Amanda Ervin

The Supreme Request

“Be gracious to me, O God, according to Your lovingkindness; According to the greatness of Your compassion blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin” (Psalm 51:1, 2). From the dark prison of guilt that David had made for himself, he looked out through its bars and cried for the mercy of God. Above all, he needed restoration to God, for reconciliation to his God would include within it everything that would be involved in making him whole again. Without God, he was lost, lonely, guilt ridden, and without purpose; however, restoration to God meant forgiveness, a clean heart, living once again within God's fellowship, joy, the recovery of a godly influence, and a life that had God's approval upon it.

Key Thought: “Restore to me the joy of Your salvation and sustain me with a willing spirit. Then I will teach transgressors Your ways, and sinners will be converted to You” (51:12, 13).
