Are You Feeling Guilty? (Part 1)

There are two kinds of guilt in the Bible. There is the feeling of guilt when our conscience condemns us—subjective guilt. There is also guilt for doing something objectively wrong. This guilt isn't a feeling; it is a state of being that results from having sinned. It is the criminal that is pronounced guilty by the judge – objective guilt. The word "guilt" is found 79 times in the New King James Version. Seventy-eight times it refers to objective guilt. Once it refers to someone feeling guilty (Zechariah 11:5). The Bible uses the word "conscience" in association with the subjective feeling of guilt. The word "conscience" is found 30 times in the NKJV, and only in the New Testament. When our conscience accuses us (Romans 2:15), we feel guilty.

The work of Jesus eliminates guilt of both kinds. First, the offering of Jesus blood eliminates objective guilt for those who believe and obey the gospel. Jesus said, "For this is My blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins" (Matthew 26:28). Peter said to the guilty in Acts 2:38, "Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." Second, our guilty conscience is also cleansed by Jesus. Hebrews 9:14 states, "how much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?" This means that holding onto guilt is a choice we make for irrational reasons. Moreover, guilt prevents us from doing God's work of evangelizing the lost. Let go of guilt, and get to work.

God bless you, and I love you.

Dear Church, It is hard to write the words I feel. Each of you has been so supportive and helpful since I became ill. Each prayer, visit and dish of food, phone calls & cards have been very special to us. We want to say a special thank you for the teachers who are training up children in the way they should go. Thank you to the youth who helped cook and prepare food for us & to those who made cards. Each of you kids are special to us. We love you and again a big hug & thank you.

True Failure

"You love all words that devour, O deceitful tongue. But God will break you down forever; He will snatch you up and tear you away from your tent, and uproot you from the land of the living. Selah." (Psalm 52:5-7) A failure at anytime and in any place is heartbreaking, but failing in the school of life is the greatest of all tragedies. Usually when one fails a course in school, he can take it over. However, when one comes to the end of life and discovers that he has failed it, he faces the report card of God, which means an unending eternity in the place where all true failures go. The writer describes the failure of the wicked man by highlighting the colossal mistakes he has made. He did not make God his refuge. He did not come to God and put his trust in Him. One can win in life only if God is his shield and stronghold. God loves everyone and offers His hand of grace to each, but His gifts must be accepted and incorporated into our way of living. He trusted in the abundance of riches. Instead of trusting in the living God, he put his faith in the uncertainty of riches. He sought riches, what riches could do, and left God out of his life. He was strong in his desire for evil. He pursued evil. He loved it and was eager for it. He invested his life in it.

Key Thought: This picture is brief, to the point, and convicting. Who is a failure? He is the one who lives without God, makes money his treasure, and commits himself to evil. Hollywood may not praise such a lifestyle, but it will be judged and condemned by Heaven.
