Little Eyes

We have a song that is often sung in our children's classes: "Oh, be careful little eyes what you see." The song continues and speaks about being careful about what we hear, say, do, and where we go. No only little eyes, but big eyes ought to abstain from the "lust of the eyes" (1 John 2:15-17). Several years ago, a study found that teens that watched and listened to sex and sexual situations on television were TWICE as likely to have sex within the next year as teens not so exposed. In other words, one out of every two teens who watch such on television will end up behaving that way.

Remember the Bible's warning: "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life" (Proverbs 4:23). We are what we think; if we allow evil things to permeate our thoughts, then our ways will be evil as well. Jesus said, "But the things which proceed out of the mouth come forth out of the heart; and they defile the man. For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, railings: these are the things which defile the man..." (Matthew 15:18-20).

Now, if television can have such a significant effect on the lives of teens when it comes to sex, what about other matters? What about drinking? Smoking? Cursing? Taking God's name in vain? Lying? Cheating? What are the numbers on these other areas of morality that don't require a physical encounter with another person, but simply a thought, word, or careless action? My guess would be that the percentage is a lot higher. Awake to righteousness! (1 Corinthians 15:34).

God bless you and I love you. Kevin Cauley

March 2017 LTS Bulletin

David

By Sylvia Williams

Jerry Monholland of the Hampton Road Church in Texarkana challenged the 21 children who attended LTS Sunday, March 12th to be faithful to God when you are young and faithful to God when you are old. David was depicted as an example to follow. Kevin Cauley led the group in a spirited singing session and taught the children an appropriate song about David's triumph over the giant Goliath. The 9 feet 6 inch visual aid of Goliath, made by Irene & Sharon Keddy several years ago, was unrolled and taped to the wall. The children were impressed with his height as they measured themselves against the giant.

They made leather slingshots and practiced with marshmallows instead of stones. Shara and Sommer Hobson reviewed and reinforced the lesson facts with appropriate handwork. Everyone enjoyed cheesy nachos for refreshments. An outside activity and a review of Bible facts completed the day's activities. Those who benefitted are Adajiah, Zain, William, Charles, Drake, Sabrina, James, Landrie, Archie, Samuel, Diego, Ania, Akiya, Logan, Sawyer, Gavin, Aaliyah, Elizabeth, Kenny, Jonny, and Jamarcus. It was Drake's first time to attend because he recently turned 4. He came with a smile on his face and kept it all afternoon. He expected to have fun and he did. Just a little positive feedback goes a long way with adult helpers.

Our other teen helpers were Marli Thomas and Latorie Brown. The other adults who invested an afternoon are MaryLynn Cauley, Sylvia Williams, Devonte Ballard, Stephanie Wages, Dana Moore, Suzette Tyndell, Virginia Parrish, Janie Martin, Karen & Mike Raney, Jimmie Thomas, and Wilma Alexander.

It is hard to believe we only have 2 more sessions this year. Continue to pray for the children who attend and the adults who help. It is definitely an investment in the future.

Youth Devo

Sunday, March 26th will be youth night after PM service. Sandwiches & favorite dips & chips will be served. Blake & Danielle Tyndell will be our hosts for this activity.
