Jesus Desired Baptism

Jesus never told anyone not to be baptized. There are some religious people today who will go where Jesus never went. They will tell you that you don't need to be baptized to be saved. This was not Jesus' attitude toward baptism. In fact, when He went to be baptized, John tried to tell Him that He didn't need to be baptized, and Jesus rejected John's statement saying, "Permit it to be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness" (Matthew 3:15). Even Jesus saw the necessity to be baptized "to fulfill all righteousness." This means that if Jesus hadn't been baptized, He would not have fulfilled all righteousness. Jesus also rebuked those who refused baptism. He said in Luke 7:29-30, "And when all the people heard, even the tax collectors justified God, having been baptized with the baptism of John. But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the will of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him." After Jesus was raised from the dead, He told His followers to go make disciples of all nations by baptizing and teaching (Matthew 28:19-20). He also said, "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; he that believeth not shall be condemned" (Mark 16:15-16). Jesus even supervised the baptisms of perhaps thousands of people. "Therefore, when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John (though Jesus Himself did not baptize, but His disciples)" (John 4:1-2). This last passage implies that a person couldn't become a disciple without being baptized. Yet, in light of all of this evidence, many today will say that baptism is unessential. What Jesus are they following? Let's follow Jesus and not the opinions of men.

God bless you, and I love you. Kevin Cauley

Dear Church Family, I want to thank you all so much for the prayers, visits, and phone calls during my stay at the hospital. I am truly blessed.
Love, Mary Nell.

In more ways than you will ever know...my heart thanks you. Dear church youth & leaders, Thank you for the Valentine cards, candy, & especially the designed bag. I'm still enjoying it all. God bless you for being so kind and thoughtful & for making me feel so blessed. Shelah Shirley

"The Lord of Hosts Is With Us"

"There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, the holy dwelling places of the Most High. God is in the midst of her, she will not be moved; God will help her when morning dawns. The nations made an uproar, the kingdoms tottered; He raised His voice, the earth melted. The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our stronghold. Selah" (Psalm 46:4-7). Nations may roar against God's people like angry waves of the sea tossing about. "The nations made an uproar, the kingdoms tottered; He raised His voice, the earth melted." The kingdoms had "tottered" in the sense that they had been rising and falling. The kingdoms that were being invaded were falling, and the kingdoms that were making the conquests were excelling in power. Commotion and upheaval characterized the nations of the world. In the midst of such national disturbances, God spoke and the earth "melted." At His word, the vicissitudes of the earth, as wide and violent as they were, passed away. The raging world became calm for the people of God. The refrain of this verse pictures God as the sovereign Ruler of the universe. "The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our stronghold." He is the almighty One, "the God of Jacob," the God of the nation of Israel. To have Him on one's side is to have a stronghold that cannot be broken into or overthrown by any force or enemy. Key Thought: We must listen to the writer's "Selah" and pause and reflect on this that we have just read.
