Resolving to Change (Part 3)

When we let go of validating ourselves by everything except God, it becomes easier to change. However, knowing that we can change, and getting rid of the obstacles to change, we may still fear change. We tell ourselves: "How I am going to adjust? Maybe the changes will be horrible instead of good. Maybe life isn't too bad right now as it is." Fearing the unknown is a challenge when we need to make changes because fear pushes us to accept the status quo and stagnate. How can I confront fear and overcome it so I can change and thrive?

Fear is an emotion that we create from our own anxieties and worry. God doesn't want us living like that. He wants us to put our faith and trust in Him. Philippians 4:6-7 says, "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." God promises a life of peace and spiritual safety through Christ Jesus, but we must act on faith to receive that life by trusting in Jesus and His word instead of our own rationalizations. When we live like Jesus, we can overcome our fear knowing that Jesus will be with us to give us peace and spiritual safety. We overcome fear through loving God and loving one another as Jesus taught us to love. First John 4:18 says, "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love." Our fear is not greater than God, and God's love practiced in our lives overcomes it! Trusting in God, we can change!

God bless you, and I love you.

LTS BULLETIN JAN 2018

Saul of Tarsus

Chip Horton, minister from Mount Vernon, was well prepared last Sunday afternoon when he presented the lesson on Saul of Tarsus who became Paul, the apostle. Although attendance was down because of seasonal illnesses, the eight children who attended and the four teen helpers benefitted from the activities. The well-behaved, attentive group included Zain, Charles, Jamiya, Jordan, Amira, Mersadies, Maddux, and Gavin. The young helpers were Sommer, Sawyer, Logan and Aaliyah.

After the group singing led by Kevin Cauley and the lesson by Brother Horton, everyone enjoyed the animated movie that retold the story of Saul, a craft project that involved applying glow-in-the-dark paint on a picture, application time to reinforce the Bible facts and hot chicken strips plus other delectable snack items.

The adults helpers were Suzette Tyndell, MaryLynn Cauley, Stephanie Wages, Jimmie Thomas, Janie Martin, Michael Raney, Shara Hobson, Virginia Parrish, Wilma Alexander and Sylvia Williams.

I apologize for not submitting a report for the December session of LTS. I lost the attendance list and was afraid I could not reproduce it from memory. We had twelve students who participated and a very good lesson presented by Trevon Buchanan.

Your support is always appreciated. It is a blessing to watch the children expand their knowledge of spiritual things.
