Having Enough Rope

Many years ago, my sister moved into an apartment on the third floor; she asked me to help with the move, which I did. When it came time to move their couch, we were very disappointed to discover—after carrying it up three flights of stairs—that it would not fit through the front door. Upon much consideration, measuring, and good old-fashioned Texas fussin', the consensus was to move the couch in through the outside balcony where there was a set of French doors. I volunteered to go to the local hardware store and acquire some rope to do the job. I came back with about 300 feet of heavy-duty bright-yellow rope. There was more than enough rope! We had rope laying around for years, and every time we would use it, we would all get a good laugh about how much rope I had bought. It still comes up occasionally today. I enjoy the ribbin', and I don't regret getting the rope because it got the job done.

In 1 Peter 1:13, Peter wrote, "Therefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and rest your hope fully upon the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ." Peter uses a metaphor that is not familiar to us. "Gird up your loins" refers to the act of pulling up one's tunic, tying a belt around it, and preparing to walk. It means "get ready," or "prepare." Christians prepare by putting their faith in Christ and hoping for his return. We cannot have enough faith! Get as much as you can. The world may make fun of you for it, but in the end, you will "get the job done."

God bless you, and I love you.

Class on Attitudes

Thank you to the elders for asking/allowing me to teach the class on Wednesday nights. Thank you to the many brethren who have been able to sit in the class in the auditorium. I have been learning a lot in the preparation studies, but have really cherished the comments and thoughtful questions for discussion offered during the class. jp

UP WITH CHRIST

Christ was lifted up (John 12:32-33). Jesus signified His death on the cross, saying that He would be "lifted up." That Jesus could foretell the manner in which He would be killed by others proves His willingness to die (John 10:17-18).

Moses lifted up the bronze serpent in the wilderness so that the Israelites could look upon it to receive relief from their sin. Likewise, Christ has been lifted up that we might look upon Him to receive relief from our sins (John 3:14-16; Numbers 21:4-9; Hebrews 12:1-2).

Christ was Raised Up (Acts 2:22-24). Jesus was raised up from death by God because death could not overpower Him (1 Corinthians 15:17). Without Christ having been raised up, our faith would be void. There would be no purpose to gospel preaching (1 Corinthians 15:14). The gospel that saves us consists of Christ's death, burial, and resurrection (1 Corinthians 15:1-4).

Christ's resurrection from the dead declares Him to be the powerful Son of God (Romans 1:1-4).

Because Christ claimed life again after His death, He has power over it and over all those held captive by it (Revelation 1:17-18; John 5:28-29).

It was God's glory that raised Christ from the dead. To be saved, we must share in the likeness of His resurrection through baptism (Romans 6:4).

Christ was Taken Up (Acts 1:9). After His resurrection, Jesus was "taken up" into Heaven. By passing through the clouds, Jesus was enthroned to rule His kingdom (Daniel 7:13-14).

Only by departing Earth was Jesus able to send the Holy Spirit to inspire His word (John 16:7,13).

Because He went to Heaven, Jesus now rules as head over the church, wherein we have our salvation (Ephesians 1:20-23).--Author Unknown H2H Volume 23 #7 page 7
