A Crisis of Holiness

Some people can't find it within themselves to "live peaceably with all men" (Romans 12:18). Why is it that they seem to make an issue out of every little thing? The answer is that they lack holiness.

Holy living is not just being a moral person: one who doesn't commit fornication, drink booze, gamble away money, take advantage of other people, lie, cheat, steal, etc. Holiness certainly avoids these things, but that is not all it is. Holiness means that one is set apart from the world and its ways. This includes not only immoral behavior, but also worldly attitudes. Unfortunately, some glory in their "moral" behavior, but their attitudes are wholly corrupted by the world. The Pharisee who prayed with himself is in this category (Luke 18:9-14).

Let me paint a picture of someone who has a crisis of holiness. This person gets involved in every little scandal. She always seems to be in a panic. He relishes the latest gossip. She is constantly portraying matters in an extreme way to get others sucked into her mind-set. He can't let go of matters that have long since been resolved. She is neurotic and always feels like something is going on that she isn't involved with. He is paranoid and constantly worried about what others may be saying about him. Lack of holiness is why it is a sin to be a busybody (1 Peter 4:15), gossip (2 Thessalonians 3:11), talk idly (Matthew 12:36), be fearful (Revelation 21:8), disobey authority (Jude 8), be envious (Galatians 5:26), and suchlike. These actions are all unholy because the person doing them can't separate him or herself from the world. Moreover, they lead to one engaging in the immoral behavior listed above. May God help us to be holy both in morality, and in attitude.

God bless you, and I love you.

A Prayer

"O God, Thou art quick to reveal thyself to those who will come to Thee. It is not that the Sun of Thy love goeth down but that we turn from thee into the shadows.

"Deliver us, we pray from the admiration of our own cleverness, from delight in our own doctrinal soundness. Deliver us from pride, arrogance, self-righteousness and from a spirit of condescension as we deal with others.

"We pray, Our Father, for peace, when we have fulfilled nothing but the law of discord. We ask for Thy power when we have not bowed to Thy will. Forgive us for trying to make Thee our servant.

"Forgive us, Lord, that we see Thee not when we suffer pain, or loss or failure and seek Thee only in pleasant places.

"How is it that we profess, Lord, to love Thee at the very moment when we harbor envy or resentment toward those whom Thou dost love and for whom Thou dost suffer? From such blindness of soul, deliver us. Above all, deliver us from self-righteousness, from that hatred which seethes beneath a righteous indignation; and from that boiling hostility which wears the face of self-depreciation and anxiety.

"Remove from our lives the barriers which we erect between Thee and ourselves. Overcome our fear of standing in the full radiance of Thy light. Through Jesus Christ our Lord." Adapted from Dwight E. Stevenson Church Bulletin Material DeHoff

Youth Series Meeting

On July 2, New Boston church of Christ hosted the Northeast Texas Summer Youth Series meeting. While many are busy with camps and vacations this close to the 4th, it was encouraging to see so many area brethren and youngsters. Brother Blake Tyndell capably led us in thoughtfully picked songs. Brother Kevin Cauley taught a lesson on the knowable existence of God with arguments from cause-and-effect and design. Afterward, we feasted on hamburgers cooked by brother Jamey Thomas as well as deserts (cookies) made by our local culinarily talented ladies. It was also encouraging to see so many hands ready to help out with serving and cleaning up afterward.

Want to make new friends? Be encouraged? Be a better parent/ Christian? Set a good example for others? Enjoy singing with young people? Enjoy seeing and catching youthful zeal? We heartily recommend Youth Series meetings held this summer each Monday evening in various locations right here in Northeast Texas!
