Summer Vacation

This week my family and I are taking a summer vacation. Our itinerary includes heading up to Branson, Missouri, to spend time at Silver Dollar City, our favorite theme park, and then on to St. Louis, Missouri to visit the zoo and the arch. After that we are going to Kentucky to visit the Creation Museum and the Ark Encounter. We have been wanting to do that for years. We will end our vacation in Indianapolis, Indiana watching marching bands compete in the Drum Corp International competition. If all goes as planned, we will return to New Boston on Saturday, August 11th, and I will see you Sunday, August 12th. Please say a prayer for our safe travels while we are away.

In the Old Testament, God makes provision for His people to rest. The Jews did not work on the Sabbath day; they were required by God to rest. Exodus 20:8-10 states, "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy.... In it you shall do no work...." Four times a year, God mandated that the Israelites assemble for holy feasts: the Passover, Pentecost, Day of Atonement, and Tabernacles. These often lasted a week, not including the travel time to get to the feast and back home. Every seven years, the Israelites took the whole year off from working, and every 50 years, the year of Jubilee, they added one year to the seventh year for a whole two years of not working. God did not want man working himself to death.

While we are not under the Mosaic Law today, we would do well to learn from God's care for his people. Romans 15:4 says, "For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope."

God bless you, and I love you.

What do you Believe about the Bible?

"I can't believe that's true!" expressed a man in disbelief. The man was a preacher for a certain religious group. He went to a seminary. He was "ordained" by his denomination. Confessed Christ as Lord. Professed to believe in the Bible.

But when his preconceived notions about the Bible were shown to be false, his only defense was, "I can't believe that's true."

This actually happened. The doctrine in question was the idea that we are "saved by faith alone." It was pointed out to this denominational teacher that the Bible uses that phrase only once. It is found in James 2:24, "You see that a man is saved by works and not by faith alone."

This brings up a serious question. If we are truly trying to follow Christ's example-- living like Christ (1 Pet 2:21), shouldn't we have the same attitude as Christ did toward the Bible? What did Christ believe about the Bible? Here is what Christ believed about the Scriptures.

- #1. Christ believed that the Bible's true author is the Holy Spirit (Mat. 22:43; Mar. 12:36).
- #2. Christ believed that the miracles found in the Bible were true, they actually happened and were caused by God. Some examples of this are found in Matthew 12:39-41; 19:4-6; Mark 12:26; and Luke 17:26-27.
- #3. Christ believed that the Scriptures were to be used to interpret the Scriptures. He quoted Moses to interpret Psalms (Matthew 4:6-7 compared with Psalms 91:11-12 and Deuteronomy 6:16).
- #4. Christ believed that Scripture "cannot be broken" even to suit some pet doctrine or twisted in some way to justify a commonly held belief (John 10:35).
- #5. Christ did not believe that the Holy Spirit gave each person his own special interpretation. It did not matter how sincere the person was in his belief. If he was wrong, he was wrong. He was in error because he did not know the Scriptures or the power of God (Matthew 22:23-33; Mark 12:18-27; Luke 20:27-38).
- #6. Obeying Christ's commands (found in the Bible) is a major sign of love. If you love Him, says Christ, you will keep His commandments (John 14:15).

Now the question is, do you have the same attitude toward the Bible as Christ did?
