Born in Sin?

Does Psalm 51:5 teach that babies are born in sin? The New King James Version translates Psalm 51:5, "Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, And in sin my mother conceived me." The English Standard Version, American Standard Version, New American Standard Bible, and Revised Standard Version translate this verse almost identically as the NKJV. The King James Version says: "Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me." In contrast, the New International Version says, "Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me." The Christian Standard Bible says, "Indeed, I was guilty when I was born; I was sinful when my mother conceived me." The NIV and CSB translations declare explicitly that David was born in sin.

In the KJV, NKJV, ESV, ASV, NASB, and RSV, the prepositional phrases "in iniquity," and "in sin" are adverbial modifying the two verbs "was brought forth," and "conceived" respectively. Interpreted literally, it wasn't David that sinned, but his mother. Obviously, that isn't what David is saying. Rather, he is expressing the depth of his guilt after Nathan the prophet confronted him about his adultery with Bathsheba and murder of her husband Uriah. That means that this passage must not be understood literally, but figuratively. The NIV and CSB strip this figure away and make the language literal when it is not. David was expressing the depth of his guilt by figuratively extending it to his mother's conception and birth of him. This is not an objective statement about David's birth; it is a subjective statement about how David felt about his birth after He sinned. So, this verse teaches that David felt very badly about his sin; it does not teach that babies are born in sin.

God bless you, and I love you.

Take Heed

Jesus uses the words, "Take heed," often as He warns against sin and especially bad attitudes. Our hearts are to be on guard every moment lest we fall prey to the devil's efforts to seduce us. "For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks" (Matthew 12:34). Most of our temptations will come upon us unexpectedly. We will not be prepared for the suddenness of the appearance of evil. Part of the success of Satan with his times of tempting is that sin will appear harmless. Even if we are aware of the harm it can cause, we tend to think we are stronger than we really are. Take Heed!! Most people would be really cautious if they thought a very venomous snake had gotten into their house or car. I was surprised that commercial airlines regularly transport dangerous reptiles with hundreds of passengers on board. I would not be comfortable with dangerous animals on a plane with me. We need to be more concerned than we usually are with the wicked plans that our adversary, the devil, has for us personally. It is safe to say that at this very moment Satan is laying the groundwork for our downfall. The Lord knew by experience that Satan could and would tempt us because he tempted the Lord. We are not exempt! Take Heed! If you believe this is not true you are a prime candidate for a serious and painful experience. The devil will come to you very soon. Peter says he prowls the world continually, looking for unwary victims. He will pounce on and destroy every soul he can like a hungry lion. Watch out! Take Heed! Be on guard. Stay close to your Saviour!
