Inherited Sin?

In last week's bulletin article, we looked at Psalm 51:5 to see if that verse taught that babies are born in sin. It did not, because it is a subjective, figurative statement about David's felt guilt, not an objective, literal statement about all babies conceived and born into the world. So, in this article we ask: Does the Bible teach that babies inherit the sin of their parents? No, but just the opposite.

The Bible teaches that each person is guilty of sin because of their own choice to commit sin. Romans 5:12 answers the question of how sin and death came into the world: "Therefore, just as through one man, sin entered the world, and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because all sinned." The one man through whom sin entered the world was Adam. His sin merited his death, hence, death through sin. Death then spread to all men. How? Because all sinned. Adam set the example of sin in his life, and his children soon copied that example. It wasn't because they inherited sin from Adam, but because they saw the sin that he committed, and they sinned too. Such a pattern has persisted in this world perpetually ever since for everyone except Jesus.

The Bible says of Jesus, "in all things He had to be made like His brethren" (Hebrews 2:17). This would mean that if babies inherited sin, then Jesus would have inherited sin too since He was made like humanity "in all things." Instead, what is true is that babies do not inherit sin, neither are they born in sin. Jesus was able to live a sinless life because He never chose to sin.

God bless you, and I love you.

We are Proud and Pleased to announce.....

Lincoln Thomas Arsenault was born June 27, 2019. He weighed 7 pounds, 10 ounces. He was 20.25 inches long.

Our elders have stated a purpose in having the fifth Sunday reserved for men (other than our capable Brother Kevin Cauley) of the congregation to teach and preach. The desire is that it will be opportunity for exercise and development of talent for teaching. In my opinion, they are to be commended for this decision and many other things. For that matter, we should all resolve to show our genuine appreciation for and to the elders. The book of Hebrews reminds us: "Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you. (Hebrews 13:17 KJV)" Everyone is better off as we follow God's plan--follow the leadership of the elders! jp
