Our Fall Gospel Meeting with Bryan Hodge

Our fall gospel meeting starts today! I am very excited that brother Bryan Hodge is here. He has been to New Boston before and delivered some very good lessons. Our elders remembered that, and they asked to have him included in our meeting schedule. He will be speaking on the topic of "Family and Faithfulness." Brother Hodge is married to Melinda. They have three children and two grandchildren. He has conducted numerous mission trips to Panama, Jamaica, Guyana, India, Ghana, the United Kingdom and Alaska. He is currently working for the Youngsport church of Christ in Killeen, Texas. He is also a part-time instructor for the Brown Trail School of Preaching. He is well-qualified to be bringing us Bible lessons. In our gospel meeting, Brother Hodge will be bringing lessons on the following topics related to Family and Faithfulness: Focus on the Cross, Live with Purpose, Don't Hide the Gospel, The Role of Father, The Role of Mother, and Is the Young Man Safe?

This is yet another opportunity for us to share the message of the gospel with our friends and family. We have beautiful fliers in our foyer available for distribution. How can we best use those fliers? Perhaps we could put a dozen in our car to give to those we meet at work, school, the mall, our favorite restaurant, or any other venue that you may consider. For the ladies, consider putting some in your purse so that you can easily hand one to your friends and family. Our job is not to "give the increase," but to "plant and water," and that is a job that we can easily do (1 Corinthians 3:6). So let's be diligent about letting others know about our good work.

God bless you, and I love you.
