Never Give Up on Evangelism!

Today is January 31st (as I am writing this article). I received a very nice thank you letter from Ed Higginbotham in the mail. He wanted to thank me for helping with the baptism of his friends Gene and Sherri on January 10th, 2020. Ed and Gene were High School classmates in 1956 and had been separated by the years. Though they had been in contact on and off, they reconnected on January 10th to discuss spiritual matters. This led to the baptisms. How many years had transpired before his decision to obey the gospel!

It was prophesied regarding the Messiah, "A bruised reed He will not break, And smoking flax He will not quench, Till He sends forth justice to victory" (Matthew 12:20, Isaiah 42:3). What does that mean? It means that Jesus never gives up! Jesus doesn't just go ahead and break the bruised reed. He doesn't just go ahead and quench the smoking flax. He gives time for the reed to heal and the flax to ignite into flame. Of course, the reed may break and the flax extinguish of itself, but Jesus continues to work on the heart of the sinner until such a time as he either rejects God wholly, or gives himself to God completely. As long as there is hope, Jesus will continue to plead for salvation.

Have you ever been discouraged because a friend or loved one did not respond to the gospel at the moment you thought they should? Don't give up! It's never too late! You never know when the next conversation about spiritual matters might result in salvation for a friend, relative, or loved-one. It happened with Ed Higginbotham, and it can happen to you too!

God bless you, and I love you.

Kevin Cauley

Phil Sanders sends us his thanks in a letter, part of which is reproduced below:

I am PERSONALLY grateful to you for your recent gift in the amount of $200.00 to be used to further our work for Christ in preaching His gospel by radio, television, satellite, the internet and the printed page. ....

...We are now being told that SEARCH is rated in the top three religious programs in America. It is because of the help we receive from individuals and churches like you. Thank you again. ..

Sincerely and gratefully,
Phil Sanders

We received a considerate thank you card this week:

New Boston church of Christ,

Thank you so much for remembering Ken and our family at this time. The prayers, love, and concern will all be remembered. The floral easel was beautiful.

Sincerely,
Family of Ken Cowling

We hope everyone is “tuning in” for the daily devotionals Kevin has been doing on Youtube via Livestream, usually around 11:30 a.m. Yesterday (Monday) was on the Power of Prayer, Luke 18 and Mark 11. These are a great late-morning pick-me-up, and if you are logged in to YouTube, you can comment in real-time. We have a working link from the web site now, but our YouTube channel is church of Christ New Boston.

If for some reason you cannot serve, please call Mike Raney-903-559-4141, or John D. Thomas-903-490-5572

Especially for the regular contribution, Treasurer Dave wants to let everyone know that anyone who wasn't here Sunday is welcome to come and leave their weekly contribution here at the office, during office hours (M-F 8a-12p) If you don't already have it in an envelope, we'll immediately place it into one upon arrival. If you call ahead, I can generally meet you at the door of your choosing. We appreciate the diligent brethren who ensure the church is not left in the lurch.
