Personal Responsibility

In the news, we hear about government responsibility. People expect the government to give them one thing or another, or to fix this or that. Sometimes we hear about corporate responsibility. This is the idea of corporations not polluting the environment and giving back to the community. What of personal responsibility? There is very little call for such a thing. Why is this? It is easier to blame one's troubles on the government than to take personal responsibility.

In the final judgment, there will be no corporate or government responsibility. There will only be personal responsibility. What did I do with the life that God gave me? How did I use it? Did I obey God's will? Jesus speaks of those who visited the sick and imprisoned, fed the hungry, clothed the naked, and helped the stranger. He said, "inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me" (Matthew 25:40). Jesus did not say, "inasmuch as the government did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me." Jesus did not say, "inasmuch as the company did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me." Jesus did not even say, "inasmuch as the church did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me."

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad" (2 Corinthians 5:10). The government will not stand before God in judgment; the company will not stand before God in judgment; the church will not stand before God in judgment. Each individual will stand before God in judgment. Are we going about our Father's business?

God bless you, and I love you.

Anyone who wasn't in assembly Sunday is welcome bring their weekly contribution here to the office, during office hours (M-F 8a-12p). Anything brought during the week will be counted in the following Sunday's total (Monday's deposit). If you don't already have it in an envelope, we'll immediately place it into one upon arrival. If you call ahead, I can generally meet you at the door of your choosing. We appreciate the diligent brethren who have also taken to mailing these in to us.

Tell Him So

*If you hear a kind word spoken
Of some worthy soul you know
It may fill his heart with sunshine
If you only tell him so.*

*If a deed, however humble
Helps you on your way to go,
Seek out the one who's helped you,
Seek him out and tell him so.*

*If your heart is touched and tender
Toward a sinner, lost and low,
It might help him to do better
If you'd only tell him so.*

*Oh, my sisters, oh, my brothers,
As o'er life's rough path you go,
If God's love has saved and kept you
Do not fail to tell men so.*

GRADUATION
We're so grateful and proud you have persevered!

Janiece Richardson has a granddaughter graduating this year down in Sugarland, TX. She will be attending Texas Tech in Lubbock, TX, very soon.

Ben and Alicia Dooley also have a De Kalb HS Senior family member Kole Dooley. See Alicia's April 10 Facebook post!

It's a Girl!
Adelyn Mae Wilson was born to Bryan and Lyndsay Wilson on April 22. She is the great granddaughter of Marie Robertson. Congratulations all.

I hope and pray we are all able to be together again soon, trusting in His love and care, showing one another the same common brotherly love we always have. As much as we grieve over missing one another, our joy will exceed that upon the reversal. Since we know God watches over us, cares for us, and is able to prevent sorrowing overmuch or sorrow upon sorrow, we trust He will bring us together again not only for the collective good, but also our own individual well being. (1 Thes 4:13; Phil 2:27; Mat 10:30; 1 Cor 15:58).
