The Death of Orthodoxy

The word "orthodoxy" means correct belief in the original sense of the word. That a belief can be correct or incorrect is not very popular today as many have adopted a multicultural perspective. This popular way of thinking says, "You have your beliefs and they are right for you, and I have my beliefs and they are right for me, but there are no right or wrong beliefs." To have orthodox beliefs means that they are supported by the teaching of Jesus and the Bible, that is, that they are true. To have unorthodox beliefs means that they are very different from what Jesus and the Bible taught. Today, orthodoxy is ridiculed as being an outmoded way of thinking. It has been replaced by contemporary culture's social agenda of rejecting just about every teaching of scripture. Nothing is sacred.

God, however, is still on His throne. Jesus Christ reigns supreme. The truth has not changed from when it was given centuries ago. "Jesus Christ is the same, yesterday, today, and forever," (Hebrews 13:8). This means that while the world around us may guffaw at the right doctrines of Christianity, God is not amused, and the time is coming when the world will realize its grave error. What do we do in the meantime? We must continue to be faithful to the word of the Lord; we must be a bastion of truth and right belief. We must not compromise God's holy word in an attempt to placate an implacable culture, but continue to sound it forth boldly before all. For it is the only way that men may come to know Him, and some will.

God bless you, and I love you.

Don't Ever Belittle the Church, part 2

J.C. Choate

From this parallel between Christ and His church [Ephesians 5:22-23], and a husband and wife, we can see that there is a very special relationship between the church and her Husband. He would be greatly offended if anyone mocked or belittled His bride — the very body of people for whom He gave His life on the cross. That blood makes the church a sacred institution, to be loved and honored, as the spiritual body over which Christ is the spiritual Head.

But there are many in the religious world who attempt to reduce the church to nothing more than a man-made organization which is of no importance. They will tell you that it is not necessary to even be a member of it to go to Heaven. To justify all of these denominations, some explain that by putting all of them together, under a big "umbrella", you end up with the church that we can read about in the Bible. Others go to John 15 and say that Christ is the vine and that the branches of that vine are the different denominational churches.

Some of these churches wear the names of their founders, some are named for the day on which they worship, or after some belief or practice that is peculiar to them. These churches have all kinds of terms for membership, they worship in different ways (some of which are more attuned to entertainment than to worship of God), and just about everything imaginable is taught and practiced by them. And the amazing thing is that all of this is done in the "name" of Christ, with each one expecting the Lord to give His approval to these many kinds of "religious" teachings and practices — most of which have no foundation in Scripture at all.

How sad for the so-called Christian world to be so divided and mixed up, making a mockery of the Lord and His way, minimizing the importance of His teaching, and belittling His sacrifice for the church itself. Because of the way man has changed things and turned them around, "organized religion" amounts to nothing more than a big joke in the minds of many. The result of so much division, confusion, and contradiction is that masses of people, worldwide, have rejected religion altogether.—used with permission, more next week! (again)

Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! (Isa 5:20-21)
