No. 9

HE GUIDES BEES AND MAN

Here is a little bee that organizes a city, that builds ten thousand cells of honey, twelve thousand cells for larvae, a holy of holies for the mother queen; a little bee that observes the increasing heat, and when the wax may melt and the honey be lost, organizes the swarm into squads, puts sentinels at the entrances, glues the feet down, then, with flying wings, creates a system of ventilation to cool the honey that makes an electric fan seem tawdry -- a little honey bee that will include twenty square miles in the field over whose flowers it has oversight.

I don't claim credit for writing that long sentence, but it does challenge our thinking just a bit. If a small creature such as a bee can perform such wonders, who are we to question the guidance of God? We need desperately to develop respect and trust for our Creator. If He guides the bees then surely He can guide us in a safe way.

-M. W.

I was happy with the number of people who participated in the combined CARE Group Meetings. This program can be just as meaningful as we want it to be! All I have spoken with had a great time this month. Let's look forward with eagerness to the meetings yet to come.

I do appreciate the fine spirit with which you received the recent lessons on Marriage-Divorce-Remarriage. No subject that involves sin is pleasant to discuss, especially this one, therefore, the words of encouragement I received from so many were especially meaningful. Thanks!

Let's not forget our goals we discussed the first of the year. With the Lord's help we can achieve all of them this year. Remember the power of prayer -- let's use it!

News & Notes

Our Sick

NEW BOSTON: Janie Talley has the flu, and is in room 211.

AT HOME: Sarah Jo Vance; Julie Griffin; Iris Pierce; Blanche McClung.

Our sympathy goes to Ernest Shelton, Sr. and family at the death of his sister, Bertie Lee Harmon. Services were conducted Tuesday at Bates-Rolf Funeral Chapel with burial in the Pulaski Cementary.

There were several who volunteered to read scripture for us on Sunday morning. The scripture and the name of the one to read will appear each week on the back page under the section entitled, "Those To Serve."

This will enable you to be familiar with the scripture before arriving at the building. The scripture is to be read immediately before the sermon.

PLANS FOR A SUMMER YOUTH SERIES TAKING SHAPE

There will definitely be a Summer Youth Series this year for our area. Plans are now being finalized, and topics, speakers, etc., will soon be made available.

The series will begin on June 8, and New Boston will host the second gathering on June 15. Young people, this will be a fantastic opportunity for you to build up your faith while enjoying the fellowship and getting to know many others your age. Plan now to be a part of this series!

SUNDAY -- MARCH 7TH

The church here will be hosting the Area First Sunday Singing. Why not plan on being a part of the uplifting singing that afternoon?

There will be an elder's meeting as soon as the services have concluded Sunday evening.

CONCERNING OUR BUILDING

We need everyone's cooperation in one very important area. Please do not exit from doors that have been locked unless you can lock it back. This is necessary for security purposes.
