

HAPPENINGS in God's Family

Vol. 8

January 10, 1982

No. 1

MOMENTS WITH MARVIN

I know many were visiting and several were ill during December, and we noticed it in our attendance. God has blessed us with a new year, and for this we should be grateful. Let us purpose to make it a good year for the church as we faithfully do all we can to serve our Lord!

There is a daily Bible reading plan on the next page of this bulletin. It will guide you through the entire Bible in one year. Just because one is reading does not guarantee that he is studying and understanding, but this is a systematic way of exposing one to God's Word.

We encourage each member to attend every class and service. Future sermons will explore topics and problems that must be understood in the light of God's Word!

SPECIAL CONTRIBUTION

Bro. Harvey Starling expresses his personal appreciation for the money you gave to help with the work in Asia. On December 20 those who so desired gave to help with evangelistic efforts, and the total amount was $ 625.00. It is good that some could help with this good work.

SERMONS IN JANUARY

Jan. 10 --Sunday evening we will discuss the problems involving euthanasia.

Jan. 17 --Sunday evening we will devote our attention to a study of drugs.

Jan. 24 --Sunday morning we will begin a series of lessons on Marriage, Divorce, and Remarriage.

These lessons are extremely important to both young and old, but we especially encourage our youth to be present for each lesson. You will have decisions to make in the future that will affect the destiny of your soul.
