

HAPPENINGS in God's Family

Vol. 8

November 28, 1982

No. 48

MOMENTS WITH MARVIN

I'm so grateful that Cathy and I were able to be in South Texas (Jourdanton) this past week-end as it enabled me to preach the funeral of a dear friend. We were thankful to be able to remain with the Mann family until Sunday afternoon, and would ask that you continue to remember Patti, Robin, and Michael in your prayers.

A special thanks to Steve for preaching both morning and evening; to Weaver for teaching my class; and to Jim for leading singing at both services. It's good to know that we are blessed with such capable people.

I hope all are having (or have had) a happy Thanksgiving. In spite of our problems and difficulties, God has indeed blessed us with so many things. May we always manifest a spirit of thanksgiving to our Lord.

Please make every effort to be in class and at worship this Sunday!

HEARTS FILLED WITH THANKSGIVING

What do you let fill up your heart? It will be filled with something; the choice as to just what it contains is up to you! May we always take the time to pause and reflect on our many blessings.

I know many in our world overlook the greatest blessing of all. Paul said it this way, "Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift" (II Cor. 9:15). May we ever be moved by the death, burial, and resurrection of our Lord! Will you not fill your heart with thanksgiving, and begin serving Him to the very best of your ability?

SERIES TO CONTINUE DECEMBER 5

I look for several families to take advantage of the holiday and go visiting for the week-end. With that in mind, we will continue the series of sermons on "Church Discipline" on Sunday, Dec. 5.

We have only the devil working against us.
We have God working with us.

FAITH

Doubt sees the obstacles,
but faith sees the way.
Doubt sees the darkest night
but faith sees the day
Doubt fears to take a step
but faith soars on high Doubt questions who believes faith answers I.

News & Notes

IN THE HOSPITAL

NEW BOSTON: Hall & Nora Harmon are in room 220 recovering from an automobile accident.

WADLEY: Lola Fezell's condition has improved.

DALLAS: As of Tuesday, there was a possibility Grady King's mother would be dismissed from the hospital. We are thankful she didn't suffer a heart attack or stroke.

AT HOME: Neal Kyles, Jo Harmon's son was dismissed from Veteran's Hospital; Wyndell Robertson is recovering from oral surgery.

Sympathy

Our sympathy is extended to Debbie Stevens and her family at the loss of her mother. Services were conducted last Wednesday.

Baby Shower

You are invited to a pink and blue shower honoring Pam Burleson, Saturday, December 4th at 6:30 p.m. in the home of Charlene Yates. Her address is 708 Hwy. 8 S.

All Bible class teachers are reminded of the Teachers Meeting scheduled for Sunday, December 5, at 4:30 p.m. at the building.

Youth

The Youth Evangelism Seminar was outstanding, and I know those who attended were spiritually uplifted. Those who were unable to go missed a real treat. The lessons presented by Willie Franklin were excellent. The singing was great and the Time of Day were fantastic! The warm hospitality of the Compton family was appreciated by all of us who spent Friday night in their home. We're already looking forward to next year's Seminar. A great big thanks to all the mothers who brought the food for our meal on-the-road.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY PARTY

Every member of the congregation that can is encouraged to attend this event on Friday, Dec. 3rd at the Community Center. Each family is asked to bring a covered dish of food or two, and share in the fellowship and fun for this evening. We plan on beginning the meal at 6:30 p.m. If you need transportation, please let someone know.

AREA GOSPEL MEETING

The church in Atlanta is having a meeting with Maxie Boren, Nov. 28-Dec. 1.

A.M. "Filled With Thanksgiving" (Lk. 17:11-19)

P.M. "Love In Four Dimensions" (Eph. 3:18)

"Come . . . let us reason together."
Isa. 1:18
