The Seven Beatitudes of Revelation – Part 2 -
Blessed are the Dead who Die in the Lord

The victorious are blessed because they have a wonderful hope. In Revelation 14:13, John recorded, "And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them." The Bible gives a lot of instruction on how to live, and this helps the faithful successfully navigate life. Equally important is how the Christian deals with death. This beatitude assures faithful Christians that those who die in the Lord are blessed and will experience a great rest. "They may rest from their labors." Hebrews 4:9-11 states, "There remaineth therefore a sabbath rest for the people of God. For he that is entered into his rest hath himself also rested from his works, as God did from his. Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, that no man fall after the same example of disobedience." Christians may enter into this rest if they are faithful to the Lord. This rest is not promised to the wicked and unfaithful. The victorious alone will rest, and their works will follow after them. What kind of works are these? These are the good works of living the Christian life (Ephesians 2:10, Titus 2:14). For the faithful Christian, the Lord will not put any of his sins on his account, but He will credit them with their good deeds in Christ (Romans 4:8). The Holy Spirit assures us in Hebrews 6:10: "for God is not unrighteous to forget your work and the love which ye showed toward his name, in that ye ministered unto the saints, and still do minister." Paul also affirms that none of our labor is in vain in the Lord (1 Corinthians 15:58).

God bless you, and I love you.

Anniversary

M/M Derrell Patterson August 1

Thanks to all who helped in any of a variety of ways with the events this week at the building. We had the Youth meeting here Monday night, July 19th, for which were provided SO MANY Delicious cookies and brownies. Thank you ladies for signing up and baking.

Also, thanks to the ones who cooked, set up for, served during, and cleaned up after the meal for the Higginbotham family prior to Sister Juanita's funeral.

Sister Juanita Smith (and Jimmy, too) was excited to pass on the news of the births of two new great-grandchildren. Axton Scott Gerard Hornbuckle was born July 16 to parents Curtis Hornbuckle and Torie Lomax. Eliza Rayne Gonzales was born July 10 to parents Fernando & Ashlyn Gonzales. We were pleased to hear all were doing well.

If thou put the brethren in mind of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which thou hast followed until now: but refuse profane and old wives' fables. And exercise thyself unto godliness: for bodily exercise is profitable for a little; but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life which now is, and of that which is to come. Faithful is the saying, and worthy of all acceptance. For to this end we labor and strive, because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of them that believe. These things command and teach. Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an ensample to them that believe, in word, in manner of life, in love, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give heed to reading, to exhortation, to teaching. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Be diligent in these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy progress may be manifest unto all. Take heed to thyself, and to thy teaching. Continue in these things; for in doing this thou shalt save both thyself and them that hear thee. (1Ti 4:6-16, commands underlined for emphasis, jp)
