Rising Again

Life has its ups and downs for sure. At one moment, we may be riding high in the saddle and at the next picking cactus out of our backside. Anyone who has lived for a while knows this. The only question to answer in such circumstances is: Are you going to get back up? The answer is always, "yes." If you've found yourself down lately, now is the time to get going again.

Proverbs 24:16 says, "A righteous man may fall seven times and rise again." The number seven signifies a complete amount of times that something happens. In other words, this verse is saying that while the righteous may stumble for one reason or another, they will always pick themselves up and keep going. They don't let adversity keep them down for long.

We've had our share of adversity over the past year, but it is time for us to get back up again. We have started resuming many of our "normal" activities over the past several months. This is a good thing. The Lord wants us to do the work that He has set before us to do. We have visits to make, classes to teach, and children to rear.

Now is the time to get involved in the Lord's work. Perhaps you would consider doing something that you haven't been involved in until now. There are many things that may be done. Talk to one of our elders, deacons, or preachers to see what needs we have as a congregation. Let's "rise again," as the Proverbs say the righteous will do. God is counting on us.

God bless you, and I love you.

Our (Wednesday) Bible classes

The Wednesday night adult Bible class has been exploring the topic "How God inspires faith". We have covered the introduction and two lessons now, by utilizing time from Sunday morning on the 11th. Lesson 2 was/is How God inspires faith with His Word. There are quite a few subtopics left to be explored, as God has provided evidences and reassurances time and again in scripture that He is to be trusted and obeyed.

The examination of our own faith is beneficial. Do we still believe in God? Why? Do we still believe in Jesus as the Son of God? Why? Can we still find good reasons to reach the conclusions we did in the past? 1 Peter 3:15 commands us to "sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:"

We must examine ourselves. God's expectations are that we grow spiritually, not that we stagnate or get complacent. As we are doers and not hearers only, we look into the perfect law of liberty for a REAL standard (James 1). We must find (Do others see?) Christ in us as we examine ourselves (2Cor 13:5). jp
