What is the Church?

The English word "church" derives from the Greek word kuriakon and means "the Lord's house." The Greek word for church is ekklesia and means "assembly" (Acts 19:32, 39, 41; Hebrews 12:23). The church is called by many names in the scriptures. It is called the body (1 Corinthians 12:12-27), the bride (Revelation 22:17), the temple (Ephesians 2:21), the house of God (1 Timothy 3:15), husbandry and building (1 Corinthians 3:9), the kingdom (Matthew 16:19), and much more.

The church belongs to Jesus. He is its builder and owner (Matthew 16:18). He is the head of the church (Ephesians 1:22-12). Jesus Christ died and shed his blood for the church (Acts 20:28). He is the savior of the church (Ephesians 5:23) and the King of the kingdom (Revelation 5:9-10). He is the good shepherd and the church are the sheep (John 10:11). Jesus is the foundation of the building (1 Corinthians 3:11) and the chief cornerstone (1 Peter 2:6-7).

The church is not a building, though, the English word is commonly used that way. The church is not a denomination (1 Corinthians 1:10-13); it is composed of members and members are people (1 Corinthians 12:12-27). The church may be organized in a local congregation (Hebrews 2:12) at a particular location (1 Corinthians 1:2). The Bible also teaches the church to be all saints from all times (Ephesians 1:22-23, Hebrews 12:23).

To become a member of the church, one must be baptized (1 Corinthians 12:13). This is the same as being born of the water and of the spirit (John 3:5). A person cannot be saved without being cleansed by the blood of Christ (Revelation 1:5). A person cannot be cleansed by the blood of Christ without being a member of the church (Acts 20:28, Ephesians 5:23). A person cannot be saved without being a member of the church.

God bless you, and I love you.
Kevin Cauley

Notes of appreciation:

Thanks go out to Brothers Jimmy Smith and Scott Hobson for filling-in the pulpit these last couple of weeks.

Our parking lot weeds have been sprayed and decimated by Dave Conley. He also routinely makes purchases and transports supplies up here to the building. Our parking spot and other stripes have been recoated as well this month—3 guesses whodunnit.

Sandra Conley also waters and tends the interior plants with faithful care.

Our monthly potluck luncheons bring about a phenomena of coordination of efforts in the multipurpose room and kitchen. Old and young alike do many things to expedite the meal. While we do have a sign-up list for hosting these events, it has been our experience that everyone pitches in to do everything helpful in service to one another. Since we had no specific host this month, it was gratifying to see all hands on deck again. So, thanks to all members who helped set up and clean up for these enjoyable activities. I heard nothing but positive things about the entirety of the potluck.

Resuming the Wednesday night classes July 7, adults class will resume in the middle of lesson 1 in our series of "How God inspires faith". The lesson centers on creation. I was perusing a book of humor this week, and the half-page joke told of a conversation between mother and son. They were looking out on a bright morning world following a heavy snow. The mother remarked how that God had painted the landscape, just for them to enjoy looking at it. Surprisingly, the boy exclaimed "I know, and He did it all with his left hand!" Seeking explanation, the mother was given the sound(?) reasoning from her child: "Well, Jesus sits on God's right hand."

God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; (Heb 1:1-3)
