Our Gospel Meeting

We have a gospel meeting scheduled for October 3rd-6th. Brother Mike Bonner of San Angelo, Texas will be preaching for us. He has preached for us several years ago and was very well received by the congregation and the area. The theme for this meeting will be The Triumph of Truth. This is a great topic for our meeting. Truth is something that we must all respect and acknowledge. Without truth, this world is a very sad place to live. With truth we have wonderful freedom in Christ (John 8:32).

Brother Bonner will be presenting six lessons to us in this meeting: 1) The Meaning of Truth, 2) The Fundamentals of Truth, 3) The Authenticity of Truth, 4) Enlarge our Jurisdiction FOR Truth, 4) The Truth that Justifies, 5) The Eternal Promises of Truth. Each of these lessons promises to instruct us in God's holy word and to give us the information that we need to get to heaven. The world in which we live does not honor the truth about God, the Bible, Jesus Christ, human identity, marriage, rearing children, love, and many other topics. So many people have turned to lies instead of upholding the truth. We need these lessons today so that we may not be deceived into believing error.

We have some fliers that are available for you to take with you and distribute to your friends, family, and neighbors. Please make a real effort to pass out some of these fliers. We will also be advertising our gospel meeting on the Internet. Please use that as an opportunity to tell others about this meeting. You are the ones to whom other will listen because they know you as a Christian and trust you as their friend. Let's invite as many as we can to hear these lessons about truth.

God bless you, and I love you.

Kevin Cauley

I've Got to Start...

You may actually know someone who has begun a sentence using the above words. The words that this preacher has heard used most often to complete this sentence are "exercising" and "eating right." It appears that most of us have a sense of what it will take to improve our health.

The key to accomplishing the desired improvement is truly given in this statement. It is the word "start." We may be playing mind games with ourselves when we utter these words, because if we never start, we will not have to continue the process. Perhaps we feel that we can handle the guilt better than the discipline.

What about spiritually? Have we not also heard someone (ourselves) say, "I've got to start studying my Bible regularly?" We believe what Jesus said about those who "hunger and thirst after righteousness" (Matthew 5:6), but we are still waiting to start.

What about the one who says, "I've got to start visiting like I should"? We believe what James wrote about "pure religion" consisting of visiting the "fatherless and the widows in their affliction" (James 1:27), but we just cannot seem to get started.

In reality, when we make these statements, we are taking the first step; i.e., admitting the personal need/responsibility. Now all we need to do is specify. Instead of repeating the "I've got to" part, say, "I will start (an activity) today at (a time)." Next, set a reminder and then START! Change for the better will become reality when we do. Paul exhorted, "For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2). Let's get started today.

Brother Johnson spoke to us this Sunday about "round to it". This article reminds us to not just plan on, but begin, commence, and START the good things that should be done. (James 4:17). Piles of excuses do not hold up in the Judgment Day (Matthew 25—one talent man, foolish virgins, etc.), but we know how to "redeem the time" (Eph 5:16, Col. 4:5) without trying to work our way to Heaven meritoriously. Let's strive to abound in the work of the Lord steadfastly (1 Cor 15:58), knowing our labor is not in vain in the Lord.
