The Terrible Consequences of Believing a Lie

Joseph's brothers hated him because he was their father's favorite son born of his favorite wife. Additionally, they despised him because of the dreams that he had that showed his superiority over them. For these reasons (and likely many more that we are not privy to), Joseph's brothers decided to kill him. Fortunately, Reuben did not go along with the plan and "delivered him out of their hands" (Genesis 37:21). This did not prevent Joseph from being sold into slavery, but what would they tell their father? "Joseph was killed by wild beasts. Here are his bloody clothes." They lied.

And Jacob believed the lie. He mourned for Joseph as if he were dead. Consider all of the years that he suffered in grief because he wrongly believed Joseph was dead. He also did not even consider going to search for Joseph. This had a profound impact on Joseph's life who thought that his father had abandoned him. This can be seen in the name that he gave to his firstborn son, Manasseh: "For God has made me forget all my toil and all my father's house" (Genesis 41:51).

The apostle Paul wrote in 2 Thessalonians 2:11-12, "And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness." For those who do not love the truth, but willingly believe lies, whose fault will it be when they are condemned? It will be theirs and theirs alone. Why? Because they were unwilling to examine matters and come to the correct conclusions. Truth matters! Believing lies is consequential! May we each resolve to believe and love the truth and not be deceived.

God bless you and I love you.

The Wrath of God, part 3

Again; that the wrath of God is a Divine perfection is plainly demonstrated by what we read of in Psa 95:11, "Unto whom I swear in My wrath." There are two occasions of God "swearing": in making promises (Gen 22:16), and in denouncing threatening (Deu 1:34). In the former, He swears in mercy to His children; in the latter, He swears to terrify the wicked. An oath is for solemn confirmation: Heb 6:16. In Gen 22:16 God said, "By Myself have I sworn." In Psa 89:35 He declares, "Once have I sworn by My holiness." While in Psa_95:11 He affirmed, "I swear in My wrath." Thus the great Jehovah Himself appeals to His "wrath" as a perfection equal to His "holiness": He swears by the one as much as by the other! Again; as in Christ "dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily" (Col 2:9), and as all the Divine perfections are illustriously displayed by Him (Joh 1:18), therefore do we read of "the wrath of the Lamb" (Rev 6:16).

The wrath of God is a perfection of the Divine character upon which we need to frequently meditate. First, that our hearts may be duly impressed by God's detestation of sin. We are ever prone to regard sin lightly, to gloss over its hideousness, to make excuses for it. But the more we study and ponder God's abhorrence of sin and His frightful vengeance upon it, the more likely are we to realize its heinousness. Second, to beget a true fear in our souls for God: "Let us have grace whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: for our God is a consuming fire" (Heb 12:28-29). We cannot serve Him "acceptably" unless there is due "reverence" for His awful Majesty and "godly fear" of His righteous anger, and these are best promoted by frequently calling to mind that "our God is a consuming fire." Third, to draw out our souls in fervent praise for having delivered us from "the wrath to come" (1Thes 1:10).

Our readiness or our reluctance to meditate upon the wrath of God becomes a sure test of how our hearts' really stand affected toward Him. If we do not truly rejoice in God, for what He is in Himself, and that because of all the perfections which are eternally resident in Him, then how dwelleth the love of God in us? Each of us needs to be most prayerfully on his guard against devising an image of God in our thoughts which is patterned after our own evil inclinations. Of old the Lord complained, "Thou thoughtest that I was altogether as thyself" (Psa 50:21), If we rejoice not "at the remembrance of His holiness" (Psa 97:12), if we rejoice not to know that in a soon coming Day God will make a most glorious display of His wrath, by taking vengeance on all who now oppose Him, it is proof positive that our hearts are not in subjection to Him, that we are yet in our sins, on the way to the everlasting burnings.
