Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; (Heb 13:9a)

If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. (1Ti 4:6)

Old Tapes

Several months ago, I rediscovered some of my old sermon tapes that my parents had been saving. Some of them date back to the late 1980s. Listening to those tapes sure surprised me. My Texas accent was much thicker. My voice was much higher. Surprisingly, I talked slower than I remember talking. Many things have changed over the years, but the message that was preached remains the same today as it was back then. The Gospel does not change.

The apostle Peter wrote the following words: "For this reason I will not be negligent to remind you always of these things, though you know and are established in the present truth. Yes, I think it is right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you, knowing that shortly I must put off my tent, just as our Lord Jesus Christ showed me. Moreover I will be careful to ensure that you always have a reminder of these things after my decease" (2 Peter 1:12-15).

Peter knew that the gospel stayed the same, but people change. This is why he wrote to remind them even though they knew it and were established in it. Life has a way of pulling us in many different directions. As we live, we experience joys, heartaches, pleasures, and pains. The powerful emotions that well up within us because of these things change our behavior and our thinking. God wanted us to have something solid to hold onto for all time. That is why He gave us the Bible. It is that anchor that holds us fast in the waves of life. Let's not be tossed to and fro by every wind of doctrine (Ephesians 4:14), but be faithful to the word of God throughout life.

God bless you, and I love you.

How to Overcome Fear-part 1

- 1) Remember that fear is strictly prohibited. (Deut 1:21; Gen 15:1; Isa 44:8; Psa 91:5; 1 Pet 3:13-15; Luke 12:4,7,32; John 14:27; Rev 1:17-18; 2 Tim 1:7) In fact, fear is a characteristic of the wicked (Prov 28:1). "Fear not" and "be not afraid" appear in the Bible almost 180 times. Thus, to fear is to disobey God.
- 2) Enthroned Christ. In 1 Pet 3:14, the apostle exhorts the early disciples not to fear. Then, in vs. 15 he tells them how this is done: "But sanctify in your hearts Christ as Lord." (American Standard Version). The same instruction is given in Isa. 8:11-13. With Christ enthroned in our hearts we need not fear to live, for He is the living one; we need not fear death, because He died and is alive forevermore; and, we need not fear the hereafter, for He has the keys of hades and of death. (Rev 1:17,18).
- 3) Put your faith and trust in God. (Prov 3:25,26; 29:25; Ps 56:11; 112:7; 46:1-3; Matt 8:26; 2 Tim 1:12; Isa. 12:2). Faith is the foe of fear. It is either faith or fear! (Isa 26:3).
- 4) Conceive of God as a Father. (Matt 6:9; 7:7-12; Rom 8:15). What child has not had his fears allayed on some dark night when he slipped his hand into his father's and walked with him side by side?
- 5) Never lose sight of the fact that you are in the presence of God and that His help is nigh. (Psa 46:1, 2; 23; Gen 26:24; Isa. 35:4).
- 6) Rest in the love of God (Eph 3:17-19; Rom 8:28-39). "I know not where his islands lift their fringed palms in air. I only know I cannot drift beyond His love and care."
- 7) Take courage in the fact that God is on your side and will fight for you. (Deut. 20:1; 31:6; Neh 4:14; 2 Kings 6:16; Exodus 14:13, 14). "The Lord is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?" (Psa 118:6). "If God be for us, who can be against us?" (Rom 8:31).
- 8) Never take counsel of your fears. A general who was fearful of an attack planned in the Shenandoah Valley, and expressed his fears to Stonewall Jackson, was told by the courageous Jackson, "General, never take counsel of your fears." Instead of doing that, why not with Paul say, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." (Phil 4:13).
