Happenings in God's Family is the weekly bulletin of the New Boston church of Christ. We hope to grow as close as family ought to be, to help one another as family should, and share in the destiny of Heaven as fellow-inheritors. So we strive to exhort one another daily, strengthening and encouraging one another. Our goal and focus is beyond this life, yet we diligently attempt always to

Coincidentally at Fault

Robert Todd Lincoln was at the White House when he heard what had happened to his father at Ford Theater. He immediately rushed to be by his side and stayed there till his death. After the death of his father, he would go on to be a very successful lawyer and an important figure in Republican politics. Yet He eventually refused to have to do with the presidency.

He felt it was too dangerous.

It wasn't just at his father's deathbed he saw what an assassin's bullet could do. He was standing right next to James Garfield when a gunman fired the bullet that would eventually kill him. Then as he was waiting outside for William McKinley when he was shot. From then on he refused to go anywhere near a president. He said "No, I'm not going, and they'd better not ask me, because there is a certain fatality about presidential functions when I am present.

It was just a coincidence but the tragedy still weighed on Robert Lincoln. He isn't the only one. Many folks get weighed down thinking they are responsible for things that they really don't have much control of. Things like other's behavior or choices. We think if we would have done this or that maybe things would be different.

We can influence others. We can teach others. We can be examples. But we can't control them. We have enough to be responsible for in managing our own lives that we don't need to take on everyone else's as well.

Let's be careful to not blame ourselves or others for actions that they have no control over. God only judges a man for his own actions, shouldn't we as well?

What's wrong? These Deuteronomy quotes contain one or more incorrect words. What are they?

1. The Lord your God which comes after you, he shall negotiate for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes: (1:30)
2. From Aroer, which is by the brink of the river Jabbok, and from the city that is by the river, even unto Gaza, there was not one city too strong for us: the LORD our God delivered all unto us:(2:36)
3. All the cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside unwalled towns a few.(3:5)
4. Hold this as your personal opinion while heathen nations differ, that the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.(4:39).
5. Neither shalt thou commit adultery, unless you really want to (5:18)
6. Then beware lest thou forget to make enough money, for which you came out of Egypt, from the house of bondage.(6:12)
7. If thou shalt say in council, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?(7:17)
8. And thou say in thine heart, the LORD hath gotten me this wealth (8:17)
9. And I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD you God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside slowly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you. (9:16)
10. And now, Israel, what doth the LORD prohibit, but to fear the LORD thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul (10:12)
11. Take no heed to yourselves, that your heart be deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; (11:16)
