

HAPPENINGS in God's Family

Vol. 9

July 24, 1983

No. 29

*When I have lost my temper,
I have lost my reason too.
I'm never proud of anything,
Which angrily I do.
When I have talked in anger
And my cheeks are flaming red,
I have always uttered something
Which I wish I had not said.
In anger I have never
Done a kindly deed or wise,
But many things for which I felt
I should apologize.
In looking back across my life,
At all I asked or made,
I can't recall a single time
When fury ever paid.
So I struggle to be patient,
For I've reached a wiser age;
I do not want to do a thing
Or speak a word in rage.
I have learned by sad experience
That when my temper lies,
I never do a worthy deed,
A decent deed or wise.*
