Heavenly Wisdom (Part 2)

By contrast, man's wisdom does not come from above. It is earthly (epigeios), sensual (psychikos), and demonic (daimoniodes). It has concourse with what is worldly, fleshly, and satanic. Its goal is to divide and conquer by any means, to titillate, gratify, and surfeit those self-seeking desires. It bubbles up from one's concupiscence, the root of which (Sanskrit, kup) means to be in active motion, always changing, never the same. It feverishly pursues whatever its momentary whim dictates without thought of consequence. It is unbridled, passionate, and without thought. It is envious, constantly comparing one's lack with others' perceived abundance and never being content.

Second, heavenly wisdom is informed by God's character. It is pure (hagnos). The word shares the root for holy (hagios). Heavenly wisdom is not motivated by the carnal. It is spiritual, sanctified, and devoted. It is also peaceable (eirenike). It builds relationships instead of tearing them down. It is gentle (epieikes), moderate, and patient. It is easy to be entreated (eupeithes), compliant, helpful, and ready to give. It is full of mercy (eleous), kind, gracious. It is full of good fruits (karpos), healthy and nutritious. It is without partiality (adiakritos), does not pre-judge people or situations, but waits to hear the whole matter. It is without hypocrisy (anupokritos), singular in motive and goodwill toward others. These are all attributes of God, so it should not surprise us that heavenly wisdom is godly. This wisdom counts "all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus" (Philippians 3:8), is "content with such things as [it] has" (Hebrews 13:4), and looks out for the interest of others (Philippians 2:4).

God bless you, and I love you.

- Reminders, announcement, and thanks
1. Please support the Summer Youth Series meetings listed on the back. Greer Boulevard church of Christ in Pittsburg will host July 14 at 7pm, and a lesson will be presented on the topic “HOW DO I love?”
 2. Remember our VBS is Saturday July 12. Pray for the work, the workers, and the worked-upon!
 3. Our Potluck Luncheon for July will be July 20th after morning worship.

A faithful proclamation of the Gospel will have manifest opposition, but will also bear fruit on good soil. After all, His word does accomplish that where-unto He sends it. It does not return unto Him void. (Isaiah 55:8-11). Some may contradict and blaspheme, but others will allow it to save them (Acts 13:45; James 1:21).

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. (Jude 3)
