WHAT A BIBLE TRACT CAN DO

When is the last time you took a tract off of the tract rack to give to a friend?
Have you ever used one? Did you know that a tract is a great worker?

- IT IS:
- > A silent missionary
 - > A faithful missionary
 - > A sower of God’s word
 - > A tireless worker
 - > A very economical worker
 - > A worker that repeats many times
 - > A worker that may touch multitudes
 - > A worker that stays on the job
 - > A worker than needs no vacation
 - > A worker that goes where you cannot

- > A worker that never gets sick
- > A worker that is easily available
- > A worker that heeds no opposition
- > A worker that travels in pockets
- > A worker that speaks many languages
- > A worker that takes no offerings
- > A worker that has much patience
- > A worker that never talks back
- > A worker that will talk when you have time to listen

WHY NOT PUT THEM TO WORK?

Vol. 54 No. 50 December 14, 2025

Jesus Chose! (Part 2)

Jesus chose NOT to commit sin. We read in 1 Peter 2:22 “Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth.” Jesus lived a perfect, sinless life. Admittedly, we don’t (1 John 1:8-10). However, we must try NOT to sin as it is an affront to God and if we live in sin, we will be separated from God (Isaiah 59:2). Jesus always chose not to sin. He was tempted directly by Satan, but He chose not to sin (Matthew 4:1-11). He was tempted by Peter’s weakness (Matthew 16:22-23), but He chose not to give in. If He chose not to sin, we can choose not to sin too when we are faced with temptation (1 Corinthians 10:13).

Finally, Jesus chose to give up His life for us. He says in John 10:17-18, “Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.” He chose to endure the illegal trial. He chose to endure the Roman humiliation. He chose to endure the scourging. He chose to endure the agony of the cross. If he chose to give His life for me, I can choose to give my life to Him (2 Corinthians 5:15)!

“I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” (Romans 12:1-2).

God bless you, and I love you.

Foolish

What Foundation Are You On?

I think it was philosopher David Hume who said something like “No man turns on logic until logic turns on him.” And so it is for many religious people who cling to man’s doctrines instead of heeding God’s word fully.

“Consistency — thou art a jewel!” The doctrines that are esteemed by man to be “wholesome and full of comfort” are too often those supplied from his own heart instead of the inspired word of God. We can’t add to or take away from the Word, and it is God’s power to save that matters. Some will be surprised at the Judgment to see the ruin of their foolishly built houses.
